SIXTH DAY OF R. R. STRIKE REFUSES TO OBEY ALLIED ORDER CITY IN ROLE OF GROCERYMAN EDWARD S. HOSMER DEAD Senate Committee Agrees to Speedy Action on Peace Pact After Stormy Session

Strikers and Officials Marking Time and Awaiting Results of Vote

R. R. Managers Deny Report 70 P. C. of B. & M. Men Against Returning

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—The sixth day of curtailed freight and passenger service, caused by the strike last week of several thousand shopmen and mechanics in the employ of New England railroads found strikers and railroad managers marking time and awaiting the results of the vote of the question of a return to work pending settlement of the wage dispute. The balloting will not be completed until tomorrow night.

Reports that a majority of the 70 per cent of the Boston & Maine shopmen who have voted favored a continuation of the strike were characterized by railroad officials as attempts to bias those strikers who were expected to vote today or tomorrow.

Union leaders would not comment on the report other than to point out that in one of the large shops in the Boston metropolitan district a strong sentiment against returning was said to prevail and that the number was sufficient to outvote the entire working forces reported to have returned yesterday and Monday in some of the smaller New England shops.

Pay Off Strikers

Mechanics of the Boston & Maine, who are usually paid on Wednesday or Thursday but are now on strike, were notified to collect their wages at the usual time and place. Blue uniformed trainmen, made idle by the strike will not have their pay cut because of an agreement under the federal arrangement which guarantees their pay even if the number of working hours is decreased.

Railroad officials announced that attempts would be made to continue the present service without further cancellations until Friday. Boston & Albany road bulletins said that the continuation of the nearly normal passenger service maintained during the past week would depend upon the number of cars left free from need of repairs.

Modifications of the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. and the Boston & Maine embargoes made effective today, removed the fears of many communities concerning the delivery of ice, milk and foodstuffs. Many freight handlers on the New Haven road were idle today and it was expected many Boston & Maine employees would be laid off within a few days if the strike continued.

SUGAR FAMINE STILL ON IN LOWELL

No change was evident today in Lowell's sugar situation. Although some stores have a small supply of the loaf sugar, the real article, which has so much to do with making mother's pies and pastry the envy of her neighbors, is about as scarce as the proverbial hen's teeth; and no hopes are held out by the wholesalers that the shortage may be abated soon.

"We haven't got any and we have no hopes of securing any considerable amount at present," is the tale that the wholesale men tell. With the retailers the situation is the same. Restaurants have in most cases substituted loaf sugar for the granulated article on their tables, and one restaurant today was unable to furnish its patrons with sugar of any description.

No one is willing to hazard a guess as to the length of time before Lowellites will again be able to see this succulent sweet before them in its usual and most acceptable form. And in the meantime the housewives of the city are breathing strange words against the "profiteers" whom they allege are responsible for the famine.

Hubby, too, is getting peeved. Although he admits that on occasion he has drunk his morning coffee "clear," he avers that he doesn't want to get the habit. And the kiddies don't like the idea of eating their cereals unsweetened. Also they miss the cake and pie—and pudding too—which in the days before the shortage were daily visitors to the family table.

If someone will invent a substitute for sugar, one that will never run short or be affected by strikes and business upheavals, a fortune surely awaits him, and he will earn the unbounded gratitude of his fellow citizens.

Rumanian High Commissioner Sends Message to Allied Military Board

Denies Ultimatum—Allied Generals Ask Paris for Instructions on Orders

PARIS, Aug. 13.—Constantine Diamandy, Rumanian high commissioner at Budapest, according to a message received today, informed the inter-allied military commission that he would not obey its orders, but had been authorized to negotiate with it. The allied general thereupon, telegraphed to Paris asking if they were right in considering instructions from the peace conference as military orders.

M. Diamandy denied that his government had supported the movement which placed Archduke Joseph in control in Budapest. He said he would study the representations made concerning requisitions of foodstuffs and material by the Rumanians.

He also denied that the Rumanian government had sent an ultimatum to Archduke Joseph. He said it had only sent an informal document through a liaison officer. As the document insisted upon the frontier established by the allies between Hungary and Rumania in 1916, when Rumania entered the war, the conference regards the communication as distinctly an ultimatum intended to supersede the action of the conference.

The orders which M. Diamandy refused to accept were based on instructions to the inter-allied mission to carry out the disarmament of the Hungarians in accordance with terms of armistice of November, 1918.

To Meet This Afternoon

PARIS, Aug. 13.—(By the Associated Press).—The inter-allied supreme council was summoned to meet at 2.30 o'clock today to consider the Hungarian situation.

SLIGHT EMBARGO HERE

Express Company Not Accepting Goods for Shipment on N. Y., N. H. & H.

Following instructions received from the general office of the American Railway Express Co. a few days ago, the local office of the company is not accepting goods for shipment on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Co., while goods shipped on all other lines are accepted, subject to delay. This statement was given out this noon by Charles F. Langley, local agent for the American Railway Express Co.

The embargo affects all of New England with the exception of lines operated by the Boston & Maine railroad and in the commonwealth it will be felt more in the vicinity of New Bedford and Fall River, where the New York, New Haven and Hartford is in fuller operation. Providence and other portions of Rhode Island will also be badly affected by the new order. The embargo was declared in order to control the movement of freight, so that arrangements might be made to give preference to the handling of foodstuffs and shipments of immediate necessity.

Surplus Government Food to be Placed on Sale Tomorrow Morning

Sale Will Continue as Long as Food Lasts, at Red Cross Headquarters

Lowell will assume the role of groceryman tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock when a carload of surplus government food will be placed on sale at cost in the large airy workroom of the Red Cross in Market street, the former Bigelow-Hartford plant.

Every last detail has been taken care of, the food is piled up awaiting purchasers, the distributing staff has been completed, prices arranged and the next step is up to the housewives of the city.

The food variety will include bacon, roast beef, corned beef hash, canned peas, corn and tomatoes. The amounts bought but the city and the prices for which they will be sold are as follows: 84 12-lb. cans bacon, $4.15 per can; 168 6-lb. cans roast beef, $1.50 per can; 4032 1-lb. cans corned beef, 30c per can; 1332 20-ounce cans corned beef hash, 37c per can; 5592 cans peas, 10c per can; 6000 cans corn, 10c per can; 3744 cans tomatoes, 12c per can.

The food is of the best, according to testimony given by Lowell doctors who served overseas and made their diet very greatly on government food. There are no bones in the meats sold and besides the initial low cost, the housekeeper will also save the expense of cooking as all the canned meats have first been cooked.

Prospective purchasers are warned to bring baskets or bags as the cans are of irregular sizes and hard to carry. No wrapping paper will be furnished at the salesroom as the city does not wish to incur any more overhead expense than is absolutely necessary. The Red Cross will have full charge.

STATIONARY FIREMEN ARE STILL OUT

There is no change in the strike of the stationary firemen employed in the local cotton mills. One of the officials of the Stationary Firemen's union stated this morning that strikebreakers are being brought to this city from out-of-town. He said the cotton mill firemen are the lowest paid men of that craft and the only workmen employed 12 hours a day. He said the pay of the cotton mill firemen is between 48 and 54 cents an hour.

This official quoted a list of prices paid in the different local concerns, stating that the American Hide & Leather Co. pays its firemen $34.50 a week, the Lowell Gas Light Co. and the American Woolen Co. $32.50 and the Avery Chemical Co. $32.50 a week. In Manchester, N. H., the stationary firemen are receiving $31.34 a week, while in Fall River, they are being paid $30 a week, and in all these places the firemen work 48 hours a week. He said in Lowell the firemen are asking a minimum wage of $5 a day and an eight-hour day.

CAR SHOP WORKERS AWAIT VOTE COUNT

The result of the vote taken by the strikers of the Boston & Maine car shops at Billerica to determine if the men will return to work pending further orders from the international body, will be made known at a mass meeting of the strikers, which will be held in Odd Fellows hall, Middlesex street Friday night. So it was stated this morning. The meeting, which is being called by President Golden, will be for all crafts of the shop and it is expected a large attendance will be on hand.

The members of the Machinists' union, affiliated with the crafts, held a meeting this morning in their hall in Middlesex street, but no statement as to the doings of the meeting was given out for publication. This afternoon at 3 o'clock the members of the executive board of the affiliated crafts held a meeting in Odd Fellows temple, Middlesex street.

EDWARD S. HOSMER DEAD

Fire Fighter for More Than Half a Century and Chief for 30 Years

Edward S. Hosmer, for 30 years chief engineer of the Lowell fire department, from which position he retired in 1913, died last night at his home in Westford street, at the age of 81 years. Death came as he slept and quietly and without pain or suffering brought a well lived life to a close. Although in recent months he had not ventured far from his home he was out of doors almost every day and it was only on Monday afternoon that he sat with his family on the piazza.

His death marks the passing of one of the oldest of Lowell's fire fighters. He gave over 55 years of his active life to this work and through conscientious endeavor and aptitude rose to the position of chief. It was as head of the department that Lowell people knew him best and with the exception of about three years he held that position from 1880 until he was honorably retired May 1, 1913. There is not a single man in the department today who does not feel an individual sense of loss and this feeling is shared by hundreds of the city's men and women.

For years men of the department have familiarly referred to him as "the grand old man," an encomium he earned through constant application of sterling qualities of leadership. He not only served the department well as its chief, but brought honor to the city. He graced the office with dignity and never called upon his men to perform duties he himself would shrink from.

Although advancing age caused his retirement from the position of chief six years ago, he did not allow this change to affect his interest in the work of the department. For three or four years after that he was always to be found at fires of any magnitude and the lessons of years often brought forth eagerly sought suggestions. Up to within a comparatively short time ago he habitually attended the meetings of the Chiefs' club and always manifested a keen interest in all changes which tended toward a modernization of apparatus and fire fighting methods.

His connection with the Lowell fire department dates back to 1855 when he was first appointed a call member and attached to Old Engine 3. He afterward joined Ocean Hydrant company and was later transferred to the roles of Engine 10 in Belvidere. This company disbanded in 1858 and Mr. Hosmer organized the famous Massachusetts Hose company, serving as its foreman until 1872, when he was appointed assistant chief engineer. He served in this capacity until 1880 when he was honored by Mayor Greenhalge with the appointment of chief. With the exception of three years when he was succeeded by Chief Farrell he held office continuously until his retirement in 1913.

Devoted to his calling, Chief Hosmer was a typical fire fighter. Fire was his only enemy and the preservation of human life and property was his chosen work. He made an exhaustive study of the mastery of this force of destruction and he thoroughly succeeded to the satisfaction of his official superiors and the insurance and business interests of the city. He was ever alert to the dangers of a great conflagration and its results and was determined that the property interests of Lowell should not suffer for lack of efficiency of service or protective watchfulness on the part of the department of which he was the honored chief for so many years.

As to any man who encountered the dangers incident with fire fighting, accidents came to him on several occasions, although none was serious enough to cause but temporary absence from duty. Perhaps the most painful accident occurred when he was crushed between the ladder truck and the door of the Palmer street

DOVER, England, Aug. 13.—The American steamer Englewood struck a mine in the North sea, off the Thames river today, and sent out a wireless message for help. Tugs stood by and she made for the Thames under her own steam. It was planned to beach her at Sheerness if necessary.

The Englewood, 6123 tons, left New York July 30 for Rotterdam. She was built on Staten Island in 1918 for the United States shipping board. Black Deep is off the mouth of the Thames river about 20 miles east of Southend.

house, when several ribs were broken. He was thrown from his carriage a number of times—once at Lakeview avenue and Bridge street while responding to an alarm and another time in Dutton street. He was also injured while leading his men at fires.

On learning of his death this morning, Chief Edward F. Saunders immediately notified Chief Barrett of Peabody, president of the Massachusetts Chiefs' club and Chief Cade of Wakefield, its secretary, and just as soon as the funeral arrangements are made a further notification will be sent out in order that the chiefs throughout the state may attend the services.

Edward S. Hosmer was born in Lowell on Oct. 12, 1837. He was descended from sturdy stock, his ancestors being among the early settlers of Acton. His grandfather was a Revolutionary soldier and was in the fight at Concord bridge. His father, Stephen Hosmer, as well as his mother, Mary Wetherbee, were natives of Acton.

He received his education in the Lowell public schools, but left school at the age of 14 years and learned the trade of steam piping. He afterwards went with Amos Sanborn in Central street to learn the trade of silver spoon maker and remained there for five years. He then obtained employment in Belvidere where he stayed for 18 years. In 1855 he was elected a member of the International Fire Brigade union and in June, 1856, attended their tournament in London. He was a republican in politics, but never sought public office.

On January 2, 1858, he married Miriam B. Howe of Lowell and four daughters were born to them. Besides his wife, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. E. W. Sweetser, Mrs. George W. Alcott and Miss Emma Hosmer; 12 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

He was a 32d degree Mason and a member of William North lodge of this city. In addition to being connected with several other higher Masonic bodies, he was also a member of Oberlin lodge of Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Knights Templars, United Order of Workmen and a number of state firemen's organizations.

SEVERE DEFEATS FOR BOLSHEVIKI

Driven Out of Vinnitza, in Ukraine—Anti-Reds Also Occupy Lutsk

Fortress of Dubno Captured From Bolshevik Forces by Ukrainians

VIENNA, Aug. 13.—The fortress of Dubno, in southeastern Volhynia, has been captured from the bolshevik forces by the Ukrainian army, according to Ukrainian official reports received here today.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—The city of Vinnitza, in the Ukraine, 125 miles southwest of Kiev, has been abandoned by the bolsheviks, according to a wireless message from Moscow. In Volhynia, anti-bolshevik forces have occupied the railway center of Lutsk, southeast of Kovel.

The message reads: "In the direction of Zhmerinka, we have occupied Vinnitza. The enemy has occupied Lutsk."

Withdrawal from Vinnitza indicates that the Rumanians and anti-bolshevik have forced the bolsheviks to retire from the line of the River Dniester in northeastern Bessarabia.

PLANS TO GIVE BULGARIA OPENING TO SEA

PARIS, Aug. 13.—The supreme council, the Echo de Paris says, is preparing to give Bulgaria an opening to the Mediterranean sea through Dedagatch or Kavala. The territory surrounding the port selected would be neutralized and placed under a status similar to Danzig.

That portion of Thrace given Bulgaria at the close of the Balkan wars included Dedagatch. The Bulgarians and Germans built a railroad from Central Bulgaria to Dedagatch.

USE OF LIQUOR LICENSE MONEY

Although $52,600 has been turned into the city treasury as the result of local saloon keepers taking out licenses, this money cannot be appropriated for any specific purpose, according to City Auditor J. Joseph Hennessy. It must go to the credit of the general treasury cash account. The auditor points out that the city will not get the whole of this money as one-fourth of it must be turned over to the state.

It was suggested in some quarters that since the city council didn't see fit to grant Commissioner Murphy's request for an additional appropriation of $56,000 for street maintenance at yesterday's meeting owing to the fact that it would mean additional revenue to be made up by taxes, that perhaps the license fee money, which was not anticipated at the beginning of the year, could be used for this purpose. However, Auditor Hennessy rules that this cannot be done.

NAVAL RECRUITING STATION

Two Lowell men were forwarded from the local naval recruiting station today by Chief Cary. They were: Earl Prouty, 193 Howard street and Thomas J. Faustino, 31 Daly street. Both signed up as apprentice seamen. The Boston recruiting headquarters, to which the Lowell sub station belongs, enlisted 166 men during the past week and stood first of all the navy recruiting districts in the country.

Threat of Attempt to Force Vote on Treaty in Senate Is Heeded

Lodge and Others Agree to Hasten Action—Fail Opposed Plan

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—At a stormy session today the senate foreign relations committee agreed to expedite consideration of the peace treaty. Re-reading of disputed sections and the consideration of possible amendments will begin tomorrow.

Senator Hitchcock, Nebraska, ranking democrat of the committee, was understood to have told the committee that unless there was early committee action an attempt might be made to force a vote on the treaty in the senate.

Chairman Lodge and others were understood to have expressed assent to the proposal to hasten the committee's consideration, but Senator Fall, republican, New Mexico, was said to have taken the position that any precipitate action would be impracticable.

BOARD LETS CONTRACT FOR FISHWAYS

(Special to The Sun)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Aug. 13.—The contract for building fishways in the Merrimack river at Lawrence was awarded by the board of commissioners on fisheries and game yesterday to George T. Seabury, Inc., of Providence, R. I. The fishway is to be constructed around the dam of the Essex company, to enable migratory fish to reach the upper waters of the river for spawning purposes.

In connection with the letting of the contract, the commissioners issued the following statement: "The commissioners are very desirous of having this fishway installed before the period of low water, and the construction company has been notified to get on the ground and begin the work as soon as possible."

"The building of this fishway is in line with the work which the commission is doing in stocking the Merrimack river with salmon in an effort to restore the salmon fisheries for which this river was formerly famous."

FARMERS' INSTITUTE IN DRACUT TODAY

Practical demonstrations of tractor ploughing and of a power cultivator featured the meeting of the Farmers' institute at the farm of F. D. and A. Bryant, Marsh Hill, Dracut, today. Nearly 100 members of the institute, with friends, thoroughly enjoyed the informal program and the opportunity to closely inspect this splendid farm. At 11 o'clock, W. D. Hemenway, state officer, spoke on "Reaffirming the Home and the Community," and this afternoon W. R. Kinney, secretary of the Worcester County Horticultural society, gave a most interesting talk on "An Eight Acre High-School Garden," showing the possibilities of such amateur gardening if proper care is exercised.

The visitors enjoyed a basket luncheon at noon and Ribbard's orchestra of Lowell gave an enjoyable program. After dinner speeches added a touch of good fellowship and the entire day was one of the most pleasant and profitable of the season.

TO PREVENT STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

(Special to The Sun)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Aug. 13.—A proposed amendment of the constitution, which would give the general court authority to prohibit strikes and lockouts, was presented to the constitutional convention yesterday afternoon by John D. W. Bodfish, the blind delegate from Barnstable.

The amendment offered by Mr. Bodfish reads as follows:

"The general court shall, at its session next following the adoption of this amendment, provide for the adjudication of disputes between employers and employees and for the prevention of lockouts, strikes and other causes of involuntary or unnecessary unemployment, and shall fix the penalties; and the general court may, from time to time thereafter, make such other provisions as may be reasonable or necessary to carry out the provisions of this amendment."

The matter was referred to the committee on rules and procedure, and subsequently Delegate Bodfish made an eloquent plea before that committee for a suspension of the rule prohibiting the consideration of new business, in order that the question might be referred to the people.

During the past 12 months, he said, the public has been almost constantly harassed by one strike after another, and the opinion prevails in the minds of many that a portion, at least, of the present high cost of living is directly attributable to the use of strikes as a means to artificially inflate costs of production. For these reasons, he said, he believed the public would welcome an opportunity to vote upon the question as to whether or not arbitration of all labor disputes should be made compulsory.

The committee decided, however, to adhere to its original plan to admit no new matters for consideration, and unless the convention overturns the report it is likely that its deliberations will be completed Wednesday.

ST. JOHN'S HOSPITAL ANNUAL REPORT

The annual report of St. John's hospital for 1917 and 1918, the 51st and 52d years of the hospital's existence, has just been made public and contains the usual interesting quota of facts and figures concerning the activities of this humanitarian and benevolent institution. The statistical report shows that 3034 patients were treated during the two years and 1873 of these were discharged after being cured, 787 were discharged and declared improved, 70 discharged, unimproved, and 255 died. At the end of 1918 there were still 49 patients remaining in the hospital. There were 3258 accident cases brought to the hospital during the two years, 1883 surgical operations were performed and 14,201 cases were treated in the out-patient department.

The financial report shows an indebtedness at the end of 1918 of $163,721.31. Of this amount, $8000 is assigned to the mortgage, $2,46.25 to current bills and $153,265.05 to the new building.

Dr. Leonard Huntress, president of the hospital staff, says in his introduction to the report:

"For a great many years and of course notably in our recent epidemic of influenza this hospital, because of its insufficient size, has been unable to do justice to the demands made upon it. For the last decade friends of St. John's hospital have been hoping, and until the present time apparently hoping against hope, for what we can now see with our eyes. Before the snow flies the annex (with a capital A) will be completed. D. V., and the capacity of this hospital will be more than doubled.

"I wish to say a word in regard to our training school for nurses, and I believe I shall say enough when I assure you that this school is living up to its established reputation. It does not seem out of place to congratulate the people of this city upon the existence of four excellent training schools for nurses in Lowell and vicinity. The school at the state infirmary in Tewksbury, the school at the Lowell General hospital, the one at the Lowell Corporation hospital and the one here. In our late epidemic, nurses from each of these schools did good and necessary work in this city.

enough to be cared for by a nurse from either one of these schools, he realizes the truth of the saying that, it was the advent of the training school which raised the occupation of the nurse to the dignity of a profession."

The Sisters of Charity, in their section of the report, state that they are happy to announce that they are on "the threshold of the realization of a long cherished hope, the opening of a much talked of and much needed addition." They state that they are deeply grateful for the generous help given by the public of Lowell. They also extend their appreciation to various individuals and agencies which have assisted in carrying on the work of the hospital.

WAYS TO COOK THE GREEN CORN

BY BIDDY BEE

Every good American is revolting in his own native dish these days—literally up to his ears in sweet corn.

No need to compare with the poets in the praise of this most delectable summer vegetable—only need to suggest the only proper way to cook it and still more ways to serve it.

At its best green corn is only boiled a little in salted water. The chef at a famous hotel serves and cooks it this way.

Salt water to taste and bring fully to the boiling point. Husk the corn, but do not remove the soft inner husk lying directly next the grains. Put the ears into the salted water, bring to a boil again and cook rapidly for six minutes.

Another method is baked steamed corn, prepared as follows:

To prepare the corn strip back the husks but do not remove them. Strip off the silk, replace the husks over the grains, and soak the ears in cold water for two hours. Have the oven very hot, lay the corn in a deep baking or dripping pan, cover well with a lid or another pan and steam 15 minutes. Send the corn to the table hot and covered with a napkin.

Corn Fudding

Choose 6 ears of fresh, tender green corn, and scald the rows down the center and grate it from the cob. Beat the whites and yolks of 2 eggs separately. Add the beaten yolks to 1 tablespoonful of melted butter and 1/2 tablespoonful of sugar. Beat all very light and add 1 pint of milk and 1/2 teaspoonful of salt. Blend, well and add the grated corn. Beat again then add the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff froth. Fold in the whites, pour in a greased baking dish and set in the oven covered with a piece of brown paper. Bake slowly for an hour, serve hot, removing paper to let brown at the last moment.

Corn Fritters

Grate 6 ears of tender sweet corn from the cob. Beat 1 egg well, white and yolk together, and slowly add the grated corn beating it in thoroughly. Add 1 tablespoonful of melted butter and 1/2 pint of milk. Add 1 tablespoonful of flour or just enough to thicken. Drop by spoonfuls in hot fat and brown. Serve with chicken or crisp bacon.

LOWELL GRADUATES AT CAMP DEVENS

Five Lowell boys were among a large class comprising representatives of all parts of the country recently graduated from the motor transport school at Camp Devens. They were Henry J. Mailoux, Dracut; Paul Taylor 11 Common street; Hyman Golden, 628 School street; Jacob Golden, 628 School street; and Corp Jesse Marcus. The school was conducted by the Knights of Columbus. Diplomas were presented by General McCain, commanding officer of the camp, and Mrs. McCain was also present. Other speakers included John C. Riley, dean of the faculty; Chaplain John J. Connolly and Major J. N. Merrill.

IT WHISPERS OF PARIS

BY BETTY BROWN

"Undeniably French" must be the unspoken comment of the keen observer of such an evening frock as this sketched for Fashion Art. And French it is—one of the beloved corsetless models which conceal a most artful corset. The bodice is of white tulle, richly overhung with crystal chains. The skirt and slender train are black satin, and a surplice of black chiffon crosses the corsege, ending under a girdle of jeweled and jet ornaments.

NAVY SMOKER AT COMMUNITY CLUB

Final arrangements for the "navy smoker" to be held next Friday evening at the Community Service club on Dutton street were made at the regular meeting of the Enlisted Naval War Veterans association at their headquarters in the club last night, and President Bird and Secretary Cahill, in charge of the program, reported that the event promises to be one of the most successful ever. Every member of the organization is expected to be on hand and invitations have been issued to Mayor Perry D. Thompson, the municipal council and officers of the K. of C.

A host of original features are planned for the smoker, including a "tin dipper waltz," "barrel fight" and other events which are positively new in the Spindle City. All in all it will be a real honest-to-goodness smoker as it is given on Uncle Sam's big draughts, and the time of his life is promised to all those attending.

MOHAIR PLUSH STRIKERS

The weavers at the Massachusetts Mohair Plush mill, who are out on strike, expect that their grievances will be settled before the week is over. The men who have left their work after being refused an increase in wages, held a conference with Supt. Aveyard of the mill last Friday evening and they have arranged for another conference this week. The strikers held a meeting last evening in Odd Fellows' hall, Middlesex street, and transacted routine business.

OWL THEATRE WILL OPEN TOMORROW

The new Owl Theatre opens its second fall and winter season under management of Ray Averill tomorrow afternoon at 1:30, the policy of the house to be a continuous showing of pictures from 1:30 to 10 p. m.

Manager Averill begins his second season in Lowell with a great deal of personal satisfaction. He believes the season of 1919-1920 will not only be the best season the Owl has ever enjoyed but that all Lowell picture houses will enjoy prosperity in greater volume than ever before. One of the reasons for Mr. Averill's satisfaction is that the hard preliminary work of gaining the confidence of Lowell theatregoers and establishing the Owl firmly in the confidence of the public here as a clean and entertaining place in which to spend one's time, is now finished. He feels that The Owl is accepted and has made a place for itself in Lowell and drawn a sufficient number of people as regular patrons to maintain it profitably to its owners.

the Liberty Amusement company.

Another thing which has pleased Manager Averill very much is the fact that he has been able to contract for the showing at his theatre of a large number of the men and women film stars who are favorites in this city. Film stars as in the spoken drama, work at different times for different companies and consequently in the opening bill tomorrow and for the balance of the week, Jack Pickford, Mary's brother, and star of Tom Sawyer, Seventeen, The Varmint and other successful photo plays seen at the theatre here having the Paramount pictures, is seen at the Owl in "Bill Apperson's Boy."

The lovely Charles Ray and Norma Talmadge, Anita Stewart, Olive Thomas and other great stars have been signed for to be seen at the Owl and this means that Owl patrons this season will in fact see entirely new faces on the screen.

Mr. Averill is to be assisted by John Benney as his assistant, Charles Larue will be in charge of projection and it is expected Miss Ruby Emery of North Chelmsford will be treasurer and be in charge of the ticket sellers

The courteous and accommodating people who staff the Owl will win many friends for it. The Owl's prices this season are 11 and 17 cents after-noon, 11 and 28 cents for the evening show. The Owl phone number is 531 and patrons can always phone to find out the program and time the star feature is shown. Other interesting and unusual features now in contemplation are to be announced a little later.

Before taking your train home from Boston get The Sun at either news-stand in the North station.

FRANK WANGSTROM MISSING

The Lowell police are searching to-day for Frank Wangstrom, 37, of 75 East Merrimack street, who has been missing from his home since August 8. Wangstrom is said to have been in a despondent mood following injuries he received on July 1 when he fell from a fourth story window of the Massachusetts mills, which necessitated his spending two weeks in the hospital. He is described as 5 feet, 6 inches in height, weighs 155 pounds and has a wound on the top of his head not entirely healed. When last seen he was wearing a blue suit, brown hat and black shoes.

FOR STRONG AND NEW GERMANY

Erzberger Urges Creation of Mercantile Fleet and Help With State Advances

Must Raise Big Sum to Pay War Obligations—Favor Use of Germans in France

BERLIN, Aug. 13.—(By the Associated Press).—"We must proceed immediately to create a mercantile fleet and help Germans abroad with state advances," said Matthias Erzberger, vice premier and minister of finance of the German government, speaking before the national assembly at Weimar yesterday. He promised the assembly that a bill carrying out these projects would be presented in a few weeks.

He added that the loan situation must be given consideration, declaring that the German nation must raise 25,000,000,000 marks yearly in taxes in order to regain a healthy condition.

"The storm will come because it must come," he added. "I am constantly at work on the regular budget which will be submitted on October 1. The liquidation of our war undertakings must be completed as soon as possible."

"Under the peace treaty, we have undertaken heavy obligations which we must observe with an honest will. A big property levy is the first step on the path of imperial financial reform. This will afford a possibility of reducing the floating debt and abolishing the vicious paper regime." Erzberger declared that foodstuffs could not remain unburdened. Referring to the use of German labor in the reconstruction of northern France, he said that this was the only possible means of reparation.

"The entire system of taxation to be completed during the course of the years," he continued, "will be an accomplishment which will be a blessing to the German people and which will help to create a new and strong Germany built upon justice and democracy."

INCREASE IN SHIPMENTS OF ANTHRACITE

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 13.—Shipments of anthracite for July, as reported to the Anthracite bureau of information, aggregated 6,052,334 tons, an increase over June of 432,743 tons. Compared with July, 1918, the latest normal year in anthracite production, the shipments last month showed an increase of 619,466 tons.

The shipments for the first four months of the coal year beginning April 1, amounted to 22,608,865 tons; as compared with 21,148,536 tons for the corresponding period in 1918.

BUY SHOW FOR $150,000

Co-Stars in Boston Production

Purchase Rights Just Before Curtain Rises

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—To forestall an imminent strike call from the Actors' Equity association, Miss Peggy Wood, Donald Brian and Wallace Eddinger, co-stars in the new comedy, "Buddies," which opened last night at the Park Square theatre, bought the entire rights of the production from Selwyn & Co., New York theatrical magnates, signing the papers just before the curtain raised last evening. The sale price was $150,000. Each of the well known stars is an equal owner. The transaction is looked upon as a neat bit of camouflage to let the actors out from obeying the strike call.

Arch Selwyn, representing the New York owners and the new purchasers of the property, stated that the sale was consummated as the only feasible means of forestalling the strike call. Every member of the cast is an Equity actor, compelled to answer the association's call to strike.

The new owners will continue an indefinite stay in Boston.

"I just bought my share blind. I plunged on straight intuition. We have a splendid property and a wonderful show, and I believe we are going to make a great success of it. I am perfectly delighted, too delighted for words."

This was the way Miss Wood felt about her first big business venture in her dressing room after the performance.

Donald Brian, flushed from answering numerous curtain calls, was equally exultant over the purchase of the property.

"We bought the show as a straight proposition to save it from destruction," said he. "We are all members of the Equity and we would have to strike if called out. The call was coming. Therefore, we plunged."

"Miss Wood, Mr. Eddinger and myself each own a third. We paid $150,000 for the entire producing rights, each staking $50,000. Selwyn & Co.'s name comes off the bill tomorrow and ours go on as the owners and producers."

"Now we cannot be called out. The Equity association has no grievance against us as managers and producing owners because we are ourselves Equity members."

Boston theatrical magnates yesterday opened a court war by the injunction route on the local representatives of the Actors' Equity association.

DO YOU CRAVE SWEETS?

A Very Choice Syrup of Tempting Taste

The liking for sweets is a natural craving. The system requires a certain amount of such food. It acts as fuel. It builds energy. It maintains strength.

Domino Golden Syrup is different from any syrup you ever tasted. So good you can drink it—so wholesome you can eat all you like! And never tire of it.

And of rare "smack" and savor—flavored with just a dash of delicate cane taste—sweet—but not over-sweet—and not too "brackish."

A pure, rich, smooth, mellow, full-bodied syrup of a light golden amber tint. Of just the proper consistency—neither too thick nor too thin.

You will like it on bread, cakes, waffles, biscuits. A table delicacy for every meal of every day. Ask your grocer for Domino Golden Syrup. It is made by the American Sugar Refining Company, refiners of Domino Package Sugars—Granulated, Table, Powdered, Confectioners, Brown—Adv.

ANYTHING FOR BOOZE

Fox Skins for Which $2500
Had Been Refused Traded
for 6 Bottles of Whiskey

LONDON, July 31. (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—Three silver fox skins for which $2500 has been refused in London were obtained in Archangel for six bottles of whiskey, by a British officer who has just returned from northern Russia. Another officer traded a case of champagne for a diamond necklace. Returning soldiers say any possession of a native may be obtained with intoxicants. The hunter who parted with his fox skins went at once to a room and drank all the whiskey. He was found in a serious condition and required hospital treatment to save his life.

RUMANIANS TO OCCUPY STUHLWEISSENBURG

PARIS, Aug. 13. (By the Associated Press).—The replies of Premier Bratianu of Rumania to the notes of the supreme council of the peace conference concerning the activity of Rumanian troops in Hungary have reached Paris and were decoded today by the Rumanian delegation.

While the texts were not available, members of the Rumanian delegation said the notes were of a conciliatory nature. It is said that Premier Bratianu has instructed the Rumanian officers at Budapest to hold an immediate conference with the allied generals and to make every effort to avoid complications.

LADA, HOW DO YOU LIKE HER?

NEW YORK, August.—"Lada," it isn't the key for the latest musical success, but the name of the latest dancing success. She "melts into living lines," says the New York Sun. Lada is a "plastician" and "visualizer of the phonetic art." If you know what that means, if you don't, have a look. She'll visit the Pacific coast next March, which judging by her costume is good sense.

ONLY FIELD SHOES FOR NATIONAL GUARD

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Because men have been wearing shoes issued by the government at other times than when on duty, only field shoes with the fleshy side of the leather turned outward, will be issued to national guard troops in the future or so long as the supply lasts, the war department announces. The department had experienced considerable difficulty in keeping guardsmen supplied with footwear, which resulted in an investigation by inspectors.

ACTOR'S STRIKE SPREADS TO CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—Many Chicago theatres may be dark tonight as the result of a meeting of actors early this morning at which it was decided a strike started last night and which resulted in the closing of the Cort and Cohan's Grand theatres should be extended to other houses today in sympathy with the striking actors of New York. The closing of the Cort and Cohan's followed the arrival from New York of Francis Wilson, president of the

HIGH HONOR FOR LLOYD GEORGE

LONDON, Aug. 13.—(By the Associated Press).—King George last night invested David Lloyd George, the premier, with the order of merit at Buckingham palace. The awarding of the honor to the premier was announced on August 6.

The delayed list of honors known as the prime minister's honors, conferred to celebrate the king's birthday anniversary, was announced yesterday. The list includes one earldom, two baronies, 15 baronetcies and more than a score of knightships.

Sir Edward Cecil Guinness, first Viscount Iveagh, chancellor of Dublin university and head of the most important British brewing firm, was created an earl.

Sir Edward R. Russell, editor of the Liverpool Daily Post since 1869, was made a baron.

Joseph Duveen, senior member of the art firm of Duveen Bros. of London, New York and Paris, and Alfred Waldron Smithers, chairman of the Grand Trunk railway of Canada, were among those granted knightships.

The delay in issuing the list which was expected shortly after the king's birthday, June 3, was expected as due to the premier's lack of time to compile the list because of his duties in connection with the peace conference.

ceau will leave Paris tonight for Venice to spend a week's vacation. His place as head of the supreme council will be taken by Foreign Minister Pichon.

ALKALI IN SHAMPOOS BAD FOR WASHING HAIR

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Adv.

First Fall Shipment of Crawford Ranges for A. E. O'Heir & Co., Hurd St.

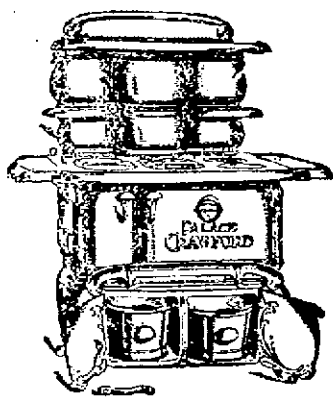

About one-half of our first fall order is represented by cut. We bought more than ever before. First because the demand for Crawford Ranges is increasing all the time and secondly, because by placing a large order early we saved the last advance in prices which makes it possible for us to sell Crawford Ranges from $5 to $12 cheaper than in other cities.

Buy a Crawford Range Now

Don't wait until we have to place our next order at the higher prices. While the stoves and ranges in this shipment last, we will sell at the old prices, which are much lower than the new price list.

A. E. O'Heir & Co.

Buying in large quantity and selling at a small profit has made this store wonderfully popular. Not only in ranges and stoves have we bought in tremendous quantities, but our floors are filled to the utmost with the latest patterns in Furniture, Rugs, etc. Come and see us when you are ready to furnish your home.

STOLE WHISKEY FROM EXPRESS COMPANY

Charged with stealing three pints of whiskey, which he secured by breaking into the office of the Manchester and Concord Express Co. on Middle street, last evening, Matthew P. Brydon pleaded guilty before Judge Enright in police court today, and was held in $500 for a hearing Aug. 20.

According to the police, Brydon paid a visit to the office of the company late last evening and after breaking John Urey, was found guilty and the glass of a rear window, shot the bolt and appropriated a package containing the aforesaid wet goods, the value of which was given at $3 a pint. Brydon didn't linger long after securing the liquor, but later in the night was unfortunate enough to meet Sergt. Bigelow and Patrolman Hessian, who had discovered the break and they persuaded him to come down to police headquarters.

Other Offenders
Mrs. Della Peabody, charged with drunkenness, was sentenced to three months in the house of correction. She appealed and furnished bonds of $200.

Charged with threatening his wife, late last evening and after breaking John Urey, was found guilty and placed on probation. Provision was made for John to contribute $10 a week for his wife's maintenance via the probation officer, and also keep away from the family domicile.

Arthur H. Richards was found guilty of stealing a bicycle, the property of Jacob Fine. Restitution was made by the young man's father and the case placed on file.

GREAT CROWD GREETED PRINCE OF WALES
ST. JOHNS, N. F., Aug. 13.—The shores of Gull's Head lake, two miles from the city, where a few weeks ago crowds gathered to watch the start of the first successful non-stop transatlantic airplane flight, were again thronged with enthusiastic Newfoundlanders today when the Prince of Wales on his official visit to this colony, went to the lake for the annual regatta.

The crowds were in waiting long before the royal guest was due and when he reached the lake every point of vantage was occupied. As he came into view, a wave of cheering swept along the line gathering force until thousands were yelling themselves hoarse.

After a program of events which kept him up until long after midnight yesterday, the prince slept at Government House in the room occupied in 1858 by his grandfather, the late King Edward VII, when as Prince of Wales, he visited Newfoundland. Early this morning the young prince went aboard the British cruiser Dragon for breakfast, and at 10 o'clock made his second official landing in the city. A crowd greeted him, repeating the enthusiastic welcome of yesterday and all along the route to the lake he received an ovation.

In witnessing the regatta, a feature of summer life here for nearly 70 years, the prince was once again following in the footsteps of his grandfather who, like the present prince, was the guest of honor at a similar event, 60 years ago. Particularly appropriate was the presence of the Prince of Wales today for it marked the revival of an event which had been abandoned during the war.

LOWELL MEN IN MANCHESTER
Congressman John Jacob Rogers, John M. O'Donoghue, president of the board of trade, John J. O'Rourke, secretary, George Bowers, chairman of the board's waterways commission, and Arthur T. Safford, chief engineer of the Locks and Canals, went to Manchester, N. H., this morning to attend a hearing being held before Col. Francis R. Shunk of the board of army engineers, relative to the establishment of a system of reservoirs at the headwaters of the Merrimack river.

CUT PRICES OF SURPLUS ARMY FOODSTUFFS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—To meet reductions recently made by retailers, a new scale of prices for surplus foodstuffs was put into effect today by the war department. Roast beef was reduced from 32.13 to $1.99 per six pound can; bacon from 35 to 31 cents per pound and three-pound cans of beans from 11 to 9 cents. Prices on other items were reduced in proportion.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL
The Worthen street daily vacation bible school, which has been in session during the past two months under the directorship of Rev. Walter E. Woodbury, pastor of the Worthen Street Baptist church, will give a public exhibition of its work tomorrow evening at the church, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. There will be exhibits of toys, baskets, hammocks and many other articles which the children have made and also there will be a program of songs, marches and drills with wands and dumb bells. Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

In Role of Groceryman
of the sale and every transaction will be on a purely cash basis as the money must be turned over to the city treasury as soon as the goods are sold.

Lowell's prices will be much cheaper than those being quoted at the government food sale in Boston and the other cities where such sales are being held are not letting the food go as cheaply as this city.

There is every indication that the sale will be of the bargain counter variety and that by noon tomorrow there will be little of it left. General favorable comment on the proposition is expressed about the city and the only criticism is that the city didn't purchase more than a carload. If the early sales show that further purchases are advisable an order will be sent to Boston at once.

sampling, ordering and receiving the goods will cause the purchaser to walk around in a circle and will leave by the same door where she entered.

If the food lasts the sale will continue until 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and if necessary, will re-open at 9 o'clock Friday morning.

WATCH THE SUN'S FOOD ADS
Whenever we have exhorted readers to follow the ads in this paper because it could not tell to help save money in the food of living, we have not had in mind such a thing as food to be canned and preserved and put away for next winter's use. It is something worth keeping in mind. Canning food when it can be bought cheap and keeping it to eat when snow is on the ground is another way of saving money. It will pay the housewife to watch this paper for advertisements of food to be canned and preserved and put away for next winter's use. By the same token, we suggest to such men having preservatives to sell, that this is a good method to get their offerings before the public to advertise them in the official organ for Lowell housewives.

THE SHOPMEN'S STRIKE
It is gratifying to learn that most of the New England Shopmen's unions have apparently voted to return to their jobs.
More and more as time goes on it becomes increasingly apparent that a labor strike must importantly have the support of public opinion in order to succeed. As a general thing, public opinion was not for this last strike of the railroad mechanics. Some persons have been blunt enough to intimate that the shopmen expected their demand for increased pay would be met as promptly as was the case when the operating trainmen demanded the adoption of the Adamson 8 hour law, because it was at that time apparently feared by the federal government that a suspension of railway traffic would immediately ensue. In the absence of proof that this was the shopmen's expectation, it is of course unjust to assert this thing to be so. If it were so, the attitude of the federal government and of public opinion was early seen to be such that the same result would not follow as was the case with the 8 hour law.

It is a credit to the good judgment of the shopmen if final tabulation of the votes shows it was decided to return to work. In the first place they struck against the advice and orders of their national leaders. In the next place they had no business to do something that would embarrass the administration and the government at a very trying time. Thirdly, if it were contemplated to go on strike and remain on strike even to the extent of forcing freight transportation to suspend, it would have been a plan consistent with Russia's crazy and selfish Bolsheviks.

Suspension of freight traffic would mean an embargo on cotton and other raw materials for Lowell's mills and industries and embargo on shipping finished products away. This could have meant nothing less than thousands of Lowell people, many of them just as badly off on this coast of existence as the shopmen, being out of work. The corporations and their workers together would have had to suffer from a condition in which they had absolutely no part or responsibility.

No one will blame the shopmen's union or any other labor organization, to look out for the interests of its members. That is its function. But it has a plain duty in that respect. But it also has a duty to the government which gives it protection and a duty to humanity in general. When it turns its back on these two, government and humanity, it cannot go ahead in its plans and aims, for a stronger force will be arraigned against it than it ever suspected existed.

WILD CAT STOCKS
This is a time when the wage earner needs to be warned against investing his money in over capitalized corporations.
All newspaper readers recall that for three months past the newspapers have been constantly publishing advertisements of companies offering to sell stock in their concerns in $100 shares, represented to yield 6, 7 and in some cases, 8 per cent. It looked like a fine investment as compared with the 4 per cent paid by the savings banks or 5 paid by co-operative banks.
Here, however, is where the possibility of loss lies: There is nothing to prevent a business man from buying an industry for $50,000, forming a new corporation with a capitalization of $100,000 and then selling a minority of its stock for $100 a share and promising the company will pay 7 per cent dividends. The exploiter tells of the great demand for his product, how much the little $50,000 industry has earned for the previous 10 years, the elaborate plans for reorganization and expansion of the industry and then, when he invited you to help furnish him with the business was offered at superior court, Providence, Monday of this week, when Mrs. Ethel Matarese, seeking to make her husband support her and her children, testified Matarese bought a second hand flivver and used it as a jitney. On the basis of fares collected, which no doubt varied, she said the flivver had netted her husband an average of $90 a week. Even with the glowing tales of the chances now offered back in Italy, it is improbable Matarese could exploit his jitney so successfully in that sunny clime.

It seems that Gov. Coolidge has had his attention called to the fact that one of the men he has nominated to have a place on the street railways commission—a commission which is to investigate trolley conditions in Massachusetts—was formerly receiver for the Bay State and as such received a fee of over $70,000. It is understood that this commission's members are not to be paid for their services and the wonder is that this $70,000 chap is willing to now give the state some gratuitous service.

Of course we stay-at-homes enjoy all kinds of vacation and fishing stories and one of the best fishing stories in the day's gist for yesterday came from Portland. Three fishermen fishing off Cape Elizabeth by means of a harpoon made of a stick and an old stove poker, succeeded in taking a 250 pound swordfish aboard their boat and going to Portland, sold it for $90. Truly the sea holds great treasures if you will only be ingenious and persevering about trying for them.

The cost of living increased 71 per cent between July, 1914, and July, 1919. If your pay hasn't been increased 71 per cent you can see how far behind you fall. And if the average employer gave a 71 per cent raise to the workers who make the necessities we have to have, no wonder the cost of existence increased by leaps and bounds.

Things can't be so bad in Boston as might be the case. Edward F. McGrady, in charge of the federal employment office, Canal street, says he has 1500 jobs open for men and women and all presumably paying a living wage. That is quite a number of jobs for one office to have.

It is said that a fireproof aeroplane capable of doing 109 miles an hour is being exhibited enthusiastically in Berlin at the present time. We would consider a fireproof aeroplane safe only in a warproof nation.

SEEN AND HEARD

Be on hand early with your basket and cash at the Red Cross market, Market street, Thursday morning!

Three sugar boats arrived in Boston last week but the raw sugar has to be refined a week at Revere. Who's suppose Revere could refine anything?

Old Mother Hubbard's dog would apparently fare ill if he went to the Lowell water department's cupboard although Charlie Morse apparently is to do the best he can.

Sincerity and Horse Sense
A Salvation Army lassie told us that when she was sent to Europe the only orders given her were, "Be sure and use horse sense."

When qualities that will carry you through anything, any time and anywhere.

We admire sincerity even in those with whom we differ most. We take our hats off to the people who believe absolutely in the things they are doing. And, no quality is so quickly discovered as insincerity.

Horse sense is little more than letting the other fellow hold the reins while you do the work. He's happy because he thinks he's running things and you're happy because you are getting the thing done.

In other words, horse sense is not worrying about the credit for any accomplishment. It is looking only for results.—N.E.A.

Only a Woman

"When does the next train for Fort Wayne leave here?" inquired the woman at the railway station.

"You'll have to wait five hours, madam."

"I don't think so."

"I do think so! Perhaps you know better than I do, madam."

"Yes, my man, and perhaps you know better than I do whether I am going to travel by that train myself or whether I am merely making the inquiry on behalf of a cousin of mine who has been spending the week-end with me and who is at this moment packing her things so she could not inquire herself, but sent me to do it for her in order to save her the trouble."

"Perhaps you think it's your business to stand there and instruct people about things they know as well as you do."

"And maybe you'll give a civil answer next time a respectable widow asks you a question instead of trying to show off what you know."

"Yes, madam."—Boston Globe.

The Gist of Life

To be up and doing. To be unfeared and unashamed to go in all the uproar and the press about any human business. My undivided heart I bear. Whisper courage in my ear.

With voiceless calls, the ancient earth summons me to a daily birth. The gist of life, the end of ends. To laugh, to love, to live, to die. To laugh, to love, to live, to die. To laugh, to love, to live, to die.

—ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

The Sun published a very interesting story on Tuesday, August 5, descriptive of the evolution of the street car from the day of the horse drawn vehicle to the present time and since the publication of the story we have heard more or less about it, verbally and otherwise. Attached to, and made part of the story, was the program, or more properly speaking, time-table of an event "way back in 1885. The letters M. L. appeared at the top of the little time-table card and we did not know at the time what the letters stood for. It was stated in the story that the writer did not know what the letters M. L. stood for but said The Sun would like to hear from somebody whose memory would carry them back to 1885. The first one to be heard from was our friend Samuel Scott and he informed us that the letters M. L. stood for Martin Luther. The Martin Luther club was then in its prime, numbering in its membership the late Governor Greenhalge and other well known men. In those days, Mr. Scott informs us, the Martin Luther club met at the postoffice then located in Merrimack square, at 1.45 o'clock and went from there to the Vesper boat house where they took a boat at 2 o'clock for their grounds in Tyngsboro. Mr. Scott said that the outing in question was the second held by the Martin Luther club, "and, take it from me," said Samuel, "it was some outing."

In the story of early street car days reference was also made to a horse known as "Chestnut." He was known as a fox and as light-footed as a prairie chicken. When anything touched his heels he usually left the imprint of his shoe corks in the car roof. John B. Crowley, former sergeant in the police department and now on the retired list because of disability, read the story and he remembered "Chestnut" very well. "But the horse that attracted most attention," said Mr. Crowley, "was a wise old owl called 'Murphy' and he certainly was a wonder. He was used as a tow horse. He was stationed at the corner of Cabot and Merrimack streets and his duty was to help the other horses up the hill with their load, the hill from Merrimack street to Salem street. The strange thing about it was that the car it was his duty to assist was the only one he paid any attention to, and the only men he paid any attention to were the driver and conductor of that car. The Pawtucketville car would go by, but he paid no attention to it. When his own car was coming he would prick up his ears, and when the driver or conductor called to him he would be Johnny-on-the-spot. The kids all knew him and when they would holler 'hello Murphy' the old horse would wiggle his ears. He was a great favorite in the neighborhood. Reading the story in The Sun reminded me of a whole lot of things and incidents that had faded from my memory and it's pleasant to recall old times, old things and old friends."

"It might be well for the water department to close up the little park which extends along Gardner avenue and Gershom avenue in Pawtucketville," said a resident of the district the other day. "For the only purpose it serves at present is to accommodate a crowd of young boys, who make it their meeting place for the playing of the unlawful game of craps."

The land was opened as a public park a year ago by former Commissioner Brown, who was at the head of the water department, at the request of numerous residents of Pawtucketville and settlers were placed there for the benefit of women and children and others who wished to enjoy fresh air. It seems, however, that a certain group have made it their stopping place and in defiance of the police gather there every evening and "roll the bones." Now with such conditions existing women and children keep away from the park with the result that the gang of youthful craps-shooters have it all to themselves. The residents of the district feel that either the police should clean out the park or the water department should close it.

I think some of our readers will recall an item in this col. printed a number of weeks ago in which it was told of the considerable damage which had been done to a young apple orchard in Groton by the depredations of

An Internal Treatment for Piles (Hemorrhoids)
Gives absolute relief from all pain and suffering. Has never failed. Guaranteed.

Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that their case was hopeless and that there was no remedy for their case.

Go to your druggist and get an original bottle of Miro Pile Remedy, the discovery of a clever Ohio chemist, that taken internally, passes unchanged through the stomach and intestines, and thus reaches the source of the trouble where, by its soothing, healing, antiseptic action, it first allays and then by direct contact with the ulcers the piles causes them to heal and disappear forever.

It's positively marvelous how speedily it acts. Blessed relief often comes in two or three days even in cases that have resisted all previously known treatments really wonderful results have been accomplished. It is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded.

Just read what Mr. F. M. Smith of 213 Broadway, London, Ohio, says:

"I gladly recommend Miro Remedy for Piles. There is no equal to it. I suffered for 13 years and tried everything but was not relieved. I doctored for years and was a constant sufferer with bleeding piles. I took two bottles of Miro and was entirely cured. Any sufferer using it will never regret it."

All pharmacists dispense Miro or can get it for you on short notice. Surely it is worth the trouble to obtain to be rid of piles forever.

IMPORTANT—What is known as itching piles are not piles in the true sense of the word, although a condition may accompany a true case of piles. For this condition Miro Pile Ointment has been prepared as in such cases it is not necessary to take the medicine.

If your druggist cannot supply you we will gladly send either of the above, mail charges paid, in receipt of price. External treatment, 15c. War Tax 2c extra. Guaranteed Remedies Co., Elvira, Ohio. Adv.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN
Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost. Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day. You see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.—Adv.

deer. It was noted at the time that although there is every reason and demand for good crops of apples being encouraged, the law nevertheless gives the deer in Massachusetts full protection and even if you saw deer browsing on your young apple trees, you could beat them off by shouting but there would be a heavy penalty if you shot one. Do you know what the successful expedient was that the Groton farmer used to protect his orchard after he had discovered what animal was ruining it? He has a friend who is a printer on The Sun and by him we are told that the Groton man and he procured narrow strips of discarded white cloth about three or four feet long and making a knot in one end of the strip, tied the other end to the trees—about four or five strips to a tree, and let the strips hang down toward the ground. It got the goat of the deer. It worked out that the deer coming to the orchard either in the night or early morning, their favorite time, would see the spectral looking strips hanging from the trees and the sight of them, together with the slight swaying, was such that they did not dare to go and nibble any more apple tree foliage.

COMMUNICATIONS

The Sun has received this communication from one of its readers: Editor of The Sun: There has been a strike at the Federal shoe factory, but there have been no riots or assaults of any kind. Please tell me or let any reader tell me why? Is it necessary to take the taxpayers' money to pay about 12 floors to look after a few pickets? We have a "peaceful picketing" law in Massachusetts and liquor dealers in this city who have no license to sell and have not taken out any license, do not have to have 15 police officers outside their doors. Is this because the shoe workers are not obeying the law, but have we no pull?

Yours truly,

A TEMPERATE SHOEWORKER.

In answer to the above we assume it was written for information and not for controversial purposes.—The Sun desires to say that the excellent department of the shoe workers on strike in the past ten days has been something of which any city might be proud. Moreover, the Sun's staff man covering the "Shoeworkers' Union" meetings says the meetings have been open to him and to the public with no concealment. On general principles, however, it is not wise to get fussed up over the 12 bluecoats obliged, according to the above note, to be at that factory on duty. The shoe workers probably not "stick on their job." One thing entering into the situation as outlined above is that if the industry asks the chief of police for the police protection, the chief has to supply it. If the men and women on strike demanded police protection it would have to be given them.

BIG BOOZE RAID IN HUB
Police Swooped Down on Hotel and Seized $15,000 Stock of Liquor
BOSTON, Aug. 13.—Rare wines and liquors, valued in excess of $15,000, were seized in a sensational raid at the Imperial hotel, Howard and Stoddard streets, yesterday afternoon.
Armed with warrants charging violation of the state bar and bottle act, Captain Richard Fitzgerald and 20 officers in plain clothes from Joy street station arrested Harris Rosenthal and Philip Levine, proprietors, and Edward N. Brennan, the manager, after confiscating the stock.
The defendants will be arraigned in Central court. Brennan will be formally charged with illegally selling a pint of bottled in bond whiskey to an agent of the federal government. The other two will be arraigned for allowing a sale of bottled goods in a retail establishment.
Alleging that they have been wrongfully accused, the two proprietors announced last night their intention of starting proceedings for recovery of the liquor.
"The stock seized has been under lock and key since June 30," said Mr. Rosenthal. "It has been unopened. I can prove this assertion. If there has been any sale of liquor in this hotel, and I do not know whether there has been one, it was made without my knowledge and consent. I am certain I can regain the property, and will at once consult an attorney."

THE IDEAL WOMAN
The great Napoleon once said: "My ideal woman is not the beautiful featured society belle, whose physician tries in vain to keep her in repair, but the matron who reaches middle age in complete preservation, that woman is rendered beautiful by perfect health." To attain such health in middle life a woman must guard against those ills which drag her down and produce nervousness, headache, backache, sleeplessness and "the blues." The standard remedy for such conditions is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for forty-five years has been restoring women to health and strength.—Adv.

5 CENT FARE FOR SHORT HAULS IN BOSTON

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—Boston is soon to experience a revival of five-cent fares. It is to be a very small revival, hardly noticeable, perhaps, when compared to the rest of the Elevated system which will continue to operate under the 10-cent fare, but it is the first move toward a reduction of the very high fares under which the people of the greater city are staggering today.

The line will be run from the North station to the corner of Franklin and Washington streets, via Portland, Merrimack and Washington streets, returning via Franklin, Federal, Congress, State, Devonshire, Washington and Canal streets. The service is to be operated on a five-minute headway from 7 o'clock a. m. to 7 o'clock p. m. on week days only. And the fare is to be five cents, with no transfer privileges. Besides, the cars are to be specially marked.

The new line will be inaugurated within a few weeks.

In determining upon the experiment the trustees of the Elevated are partially adopting the suggestions of Peter Witt, the Cleveland expert and advocate of "cheap short hauls," who in an exhaustive report has presented what he believes is the proper remedy for the financially ill Elevated system.

PROVIDES WAGE INCREASE FOR P. O. EMPLOYEES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Temporary wage increases for post office employees to be paid during the current fiscal year, are proposed in a bill introduced yesterday by Representative Mayhew, with proposals to give all workers drawing $1200 a year or less an increase of 40 per cent; workers drawing $1200 to $1500 a 31 per cent and those receiving from $1500 to $1800, 21 per cent additional.

BOARD GRANTS MORE LIQUOR LICENSES

Two special club licenses and several other liquor licenses were granted by the Lowell license commissioners at their regular meeting last evening. A list of minor licenses were also approved. Licenses granted were:

Dear Sir:

The Greek community of Lowell cannot allow the opportunity to pass to express to you their deep appreciation for your interest in the mother country, Greece, and the justice of her cause in Thrace and elsewhere.

We want all Americans to know, as you already know, that it is simple justice which we seek. We are not asking for the territory of another nation; we are asking for only portions of territory which belong to Greece and which are Greek in preponderance of population.

Greece has always looked to America to obtain for her justice and she now presents a clear case to the world. She has fought for centuries for the freedom of her race and she

REDS AND GIANTS IN "CROOSHUL" SERIES

The greatest baseball battle of the season in either of the big leagues is at hand. The Cincinnati Reds are invading the Polo grounds, New York, to fight a duel to the finish with the New York Giants. The battle will last three days and during that time, if the rain lays off, there will be six games played. It is all on account of the weather—the Reds being driven out by the rain on their previous en-

JOHNNY (YOUNG) AVILLA

LOCAL BOXERS BUSY

Great Crop of Mitt Artists Here—Avilla and Quinn Have Fine Records

Boxing is now enjoying one of the greatest seasons in the history of the game and the sport is due for one of the best victories on record. Many classy manipulators of the mitts have returned to their homes after a visit to the great war and as a result about every city town and village can boast of one or more expert glove wielders.

War Helped Boxing

The war did much for boxing and boxing did much toward winning the war. At every camp and training station boxing was played an important part in the training and entertainment of the men. Routs were staged on land and on many of the battleships at sea and the nation's army and spectators found great enjoyment in the sport.

The government, by advocating and endorsing the "manly art of self defense," did much toward making the game popular and with the return of peace, many of the boys who were developed during the war have decided to continue at the game.

Lowell Well Represented

Lowell has its quota of successful boxers and the crop is bound to grow as the approaching season points to one of the most active and most prosperous in years. Two clubs have characters to conduct boxing in the city. One is running in Lawrence and the other in Boston, Lynn, Marlboro, and many other Massachusetts cities are also conducting weekly matches.

"Tip" Quinn Makes Good

"Tip" Quinn, who has just returned home after serving three years in the United States army, appeared at the open air bouts last Saturday and added another victim to his list. While in the service he engaged in 22 contests and won all but three. He is the best of 126 pounds and stands ready to meet any boy in this section at his weight. He's a fast boxer, hits with both hands, and can take it if obliged to. In his bout here last week he stopped Jim Demas in three rounds, showing much class during the brief period that Demas was before him. He intends to continue training and is ready to take on all comers.

Young Avilla a Comer

Of all the boxers developed here in recent years, few have come up the ladder as fast as Johnny (Young) Avilla, the Lisbon club lightweight. Last Saturday he won his tenth consecutive battle and his eighth victory via the K.O. route. He has been at the game but a short time, while he has tackled several men of long experience, he has yet to meet his first defeat. Probably his most successful bout was that with Young Demas of Centralville, whom he met here several months ago. That bout will be recalled as ending in a double knockout, but as Avilla was the first to get to his feet, after going down he was awarded the verdict. He has come along rapidly under the efficient management of Leo Jones and with careful handling ought to prove a great battler. Manager Jones says Avilla will meet any boy in the country at 131 pounds and he believes that he has received many fine offers from several of the New England boxing clubs. Fans would like nothing better, however, than another Avilla-Nearney bout.

Johnny Moran There

Johnny Moran, a local boy, who while a member of the navy won the lightweight championship of the world, has shown considerable class in the few bouts he has had since donning the "telts." He set up a wonderful record in the navy, and while he met all comers, he never was forced to take the count. In fact he never experienced the sensation of "kissing" and canvas. He is a clean cut, young man and being under the management of the energetic and clever Jackie Williams, ought to "go far" this winter.

Millicent Club Has Boxer

The Millicent Club, the Hellenic club champion, defeated by Tip Quinn last week, showed enough class to demand further attention. Quinn had weight and reach on Demas, and he also has been at the game for a longer period. Demas, however, was game and worked every minute. He ought to make good against boys of his weight.

Buddy Thomas Fast

Buddy Thomas, is another local boy

who is bound to make all boys of his weight hustle. He is a big, strong, yet fast performer. He can hit hard with either hand and is about as cool a worker as one would care to see. He will be heard from before the winter ends.

Nearney Good Hitter

Young Nearney, whose fame spread after his great win with Avilla, demonstrated his hitting abilities in that memorable contest. He is a rugged boy and with careful training and handling could defeat many of the alleged star lightweights. He has not appeared in a bout since the battle with Avilla, but any time he's ready to again test the mitts he will experience no difficulty in getting matches.

Boyle to Come Back

Phinney Boyle, who has had a rather erratic career within the roped arena, expects to get back in the game this winter. When right Boyle is a very classy and satisfactory performer. He announces that he will work hard to regain his lost prestige.

Mollins Not Through

Frank Mollins, who up until he met Johnny Moran, was going like a house on fire, should not be discouraged by that defeat. He put up a game battle, the kind the fans like at his work. He made a big hit with all. He had only recently recovered from an injury when he took that bout and his past performance entitled him to further consideration. Mollins is one of the hardest hitters of his weight in this section and his many friends hope that he will again return to the game.

Conley Popular

Happy Conley, a young, ambitious and very popular dispenser of haymakers, is another lad who is bound to be kept busy this season. While not as clever as many boys he has appeared against, his hitting brought him many victories. He's a fine little worker and can always be depended upon to give the best that is in him.

To Attempt "Come Back"

Joe (Gardner) Brooks has gone down to Diamond Hill, Rhode Island, where his Uncle Joe Thomas, is conducting a boxing farm, to undergo rigid training and hopes to stage a successful come back. He has not done much boxing for the past several years, but a flattering offer to meet one of the leading bantams of Rhode Island has induced him to return to the game and while all but three, he is confident that he will regain his old time form.

Other Notables

Tommy Doyle and Frankie Walsh are a pair who did considerable satisfactory work last spring, but of late neither has done much. Both have a number of good bouts left and it would not be surprising to again see them dancing around the squared circle. George Brooks, too, should get back into condition, for he has the goods and can make any boy of his weight step lively in a six or eight round number. Kid Diamond, who "shines" as a star battler according to his manager, he has the earmarks of a comer.

Young Christo, who is just breaking in, is said to look like a future champion. He is training all the while and will soon make his professional debut. Tommy Hall, a fast and exceptionally clever sprinter, has not yet left the ranks of the "pures," but when he does finally hop into the percentage class, he will get plenty of work.

There are many other local boys taking up the game and from present indications everything points to the biggest year in the history of the paid mitt artist.

VALGER WINS FROM CHARLIE PARKER

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—Benny Valger, the "French Flash," won the decision over Charlie Parker of the South End in their 12-round bout in Mechanics building, last night. About 1000 fans saw the contest, which was one full of action.

Valger proved too clever for Parker, yet at that the latter gave the New Yorker a stiff argument and gained the honors in four of the rounds.

Sam Bell and Young Quinn went rounds to a draw. Bert Jones defeated MacMurphy in 8 rounds and Kid Lee stopped Flash Rogers in six.

CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Managers Reynolds and Coughlin of the B. & M. car Shops and Knights of Columbus teams respectively expect to complete arrangements at a meeting tonight for a three-game championship series. The first game is to be played at Spaulding park on Saturday. The Knights have won their series with the St. Peter's club, while the B. & M. and C.M.A.C. teams will even with one more game to be played later in the season. The final game, relative to the size of the purse, referee, etc., will be discussed tonight.

JOHN MCGRAW

deavors. The Reds are at the top of their form. The Giants are reinforced with two good pitchers—Phil Douglas, obtained from the Cubs, and Art Nehf from the Braves. The Reds trimmed the Giants at Cincinnati two out of three and went into first place. In the three games they scored 12 runs to the Giants' six. The Giants continued their losing at St. Louis while the Reds kept on winning. On paper the Giants look best, but in actual performances they are slightly shaded by Pat Moran's team. Fans have always hesitated to pick the Reds—seems luck always has been against them, but the great race made by Cincinnati this season has awakened the fans and critics everywhere. They have confidence in the Reds and are boldly picking them to win the pennant following the climb into first place in the series at Cincinnati. There will be three great crowds out to see the teams fight it out and the advantage of playing on their own grounds and with their own fans backing them will be with the Giants and yet the Reds fight as hard on the road as they do at home. The National league race likely will be decided in New York this week.—Fred Turbyville, N.E.A.

RED-GIANT NOTES

Cincinnati fans are so sure the Reds will win the pennant the newspapers there are getting running accounts of other teams being in the Reds' way. They want to know how their prospective world's series rivals are doing.

You can look through the National league flag winners from 1871 on, but you'll never see the name of Cincinnati in the list. Every dog has his day and maybe 1919 will be a dog day for Cincinnati.

The Reds won a lot of followers throughout the National league by their remarkable performance in July. They lost only six games in the month. They won 22 games. The Giants won 20 out of 27 games during the month but the beginning of August was the beginning of "fall" for the Giants.

So anxious is the Red club to win the pennant that Garry Herrmann is loosening the purse-strings and is in the market for talent. He bought outfielder Sen from Rochester for $10,000 and a ball player. The Reds needed an outfielder badly. Pitcher Bressler has been playing the outfield most of the season. Sherry Magee is not in good shape.

Cincinnati is so sure the Reds will cop one of the thoroughfares has been named "Moran avenue." After Pat, of course.

Gov. Cox says if the Reds win the pennant he certainly will be present and root for the Ohio entry in the world's series.

Cincinnati fans are pulling for Cleveland to win in the American so it will be an Ohio World's series. And if not Cleveland they want Detroit.

Gavvy Cravath, manager of the Phillies, believes the Giants have the best chance to win the pennant in the National league this year. Gavvy says the Giants have the reserve power.

Otto Miller, veteran catcher of the Brooklyn club, says he's been picking winners for several years and the Reds are due to cop this season. "When the Giants get a few runs behind the other teams heeding they'll start down." Otto thinks the Reds are the goods.

Ed Konelchic, veteran first baseman, says the race looks like a toss-up to him. He is a keen observer of baseball and knows well every player in the National league.

More than half the fans outside of New York and Cincinnati are looking for the Reds to cop. New York fans have anything but the Giants. Red fans will bet their last pair of pants that Moran's men cop.

Score of veteran baseball writers who have followed the races in the National for years believe the Reds have a better than even chance to win the championship.

Don't look for premiums or coupons, as the cost of the tobacco is included in the price of the cigarette.

Smokers realize that the value is in the cigarettes and do not expect premiums or coupons!

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

If you want to know what rare and unusual enjoyment Camels provide smoke them in comparison with any cigarette in the world at any price!

CAMELS are a cigarette revelation any way you consider them! Take quality, or refreshing flavor and fragrance; or, that wonderful mellow-mild-smoothness you never before got in a cigarette smoke! Yet Camels are so full bodied and so full-of-satisfaction you marvel that so much delight could be put into a cigarette!

Camels expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos makes them so irresistibly appetizing! And, the blend explains why it is possible for you to smoke Camels liberally without tiring your taste! You will prefer Camels to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

You'll realize pretty quick, too, that among the many reasons you smoke Camels is their freedom from any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or unpleasant cigarette odor!

Once you know Camels you won't take much stock in premiums, coupons or gifts! You'll prefer Camel quality!

AUSTRALIANS DEFEAT AMERICAN PLAYERS

NEWTON, Aug. 13.—Gerald L. Patterson and Norman E. Brooks, one of the visiting Australian teams, came through victorious yesterday in the second round of the United States national tennis doubles championship tournament on the courts of the Longwood Cricket club. The other team, composed of R. V. Thomas and Randolph Lycett, was eliminated by an American team.

Patterson and Brooks defeated R. Norris Williams, 2nd, and Watson M. Washburn, holders of the New England sectional title, in straight sets, 6-2, 6-3, 5-6, in a match that was easily the feature of the day's play.

Thomas and Lycett lost to the formidable New York team, Howard Washburn and Thomas C. Bundy, Pacific coast champions, had an easy time in disposing of C. B. Doyle, of Washington and F. H. Harris of Brattleboro, Vt., holders of the middle Atlantic states sectional title, the score being 6-3, 6-2, 6-2. So certain was the outcome that comparatively few spectators were attracted even by the chance to see McLoughlin, the California "comet," in action.

The fourth match scheduled was defeated by the Dallas, Tex. team of Louis Thalheimer and Leven Jester, holders of the southwestern title, to the San Franciscans, William M. Johnston and C. J. Griffin, the northwestern champions.

Despite the fact that Williams and set going to Brooks, 11-9. The point total shows 105 for the Australians to 83 for the Americans.

Play in the semi-finals this afternoon will bring Brooks and Patterson against Alexander and Voshell, while McLoughlin and Bundy will meet Johnston and Griffin.

Today's Matches

NEWTON, Aug. 13.—Interest in the semi-final round of the national lawn tennis tournament at the Longwood Cricket club today centered largely on the match between the Australian stars, Gerald L. Patterson and Norman E. Brooks and Fred B. Alexander and S. Howard Voshell, winners of the Tri-State sectionals. In the other match of the round between Maurice E. McLoughlin and T. C. Bundy, Pacific coast champions and William M. Johnston and C. J. Griffin, holders of the Northwestern title, there was a tinge of state rivalry besides the competition for final honors as all four players are from California.

Winners of the round will contest tomorrow for the privilege of playing the challenge game Saturday against the national doubles champions, William T. Tilden of Philadelphia and Vincent Richards of Yonkers, N. Y.

WRESTLING BOUT STOPPED BY POLICE

When Jabs and uppercuts took precedence over hammer locks and other holds the wrestling match between Joe Riss and Bob Johnson at the C.M.A.C. hall last night was stopped by the police.

The pair are great rivals and with both working every hold in stock and failing to gain a fall, they became excited and departed from the rules of the game and took a page out of the rules for boxing. Boxers replaced holds and with bare fisted performers sending over haymakers and hooks, the "comps" intervened and hostilities ended. Before the fireworks, however, those present saw some very classy wrestling. Peter Plourde was the referee.

The other numbers on the program were greatly enjoyed by all. Two boxing exhibitions opened the show.

In the first, Barney O'Reilly opposed Bob Coffey for four rounds. In the second, Peter Rivel and Young Patterson of the Australians and Washburn played a steady game for the first time. The first wrestling match, between games were played, one in the second went 20 minutes without a fall.

ALLEGED AUTOMOBILE THIEVES ARRAIGNED

The four alleged members of the gang of auto and accessory thieves which has been operating around Boston for the past month, and who were arrested in a camp on Bridal road, Billerica Sunday night by Cambridge and Billerica police were arraigned in Cambridge police court yesterday and held in bonds ranging from $300 to $5000 for further hearing.

Samuel Brock of Somerville, was held in $5000 on the charge of stealing three automobiles; Ernest Blevins, Cambridge, was held in a like amount charged with stealing two autos; and Leo Kellher, also of Cambridge, was held in $1000 for the larceny of one. The fourth member of the quartet, Miss Evelyn M. Kelly, Cambridge, was held in $300, charged with stealing one machine.

Two women and a man said to belong to the band, who were arrested in a cottage in South Billerica last week on charges of receiving stolen property, mostly into tires and accessories, and held in $2500 each in Lowell police court last Thursday, will come before Judge Knight for hearing tomorrow.

Congress has enacted a special law to provide an extra war risk insurance payment of $100 a month for Henry Bitter, Dubuque, Iowa, the only American soldier in the war who lost both eyes and hands.

THE SPINDLE CITY MOTORCYCLE CLUB

The members of the Spindle City Motorcycle club, who have seen service either in the army or navy, were tendered a welcome home reception at the well appointed quarters of the club on the Concord river Sunday. An informal reception was held, followed by a dinner and an entertaining program, the latter consisting of the following numbers:

Piano selections by Lester Heabeth, Miss Hilda Carlson and Mrs. Walter White; bugle calls by Daniel Naylor, who also contributed a few comic and sentimental recitations; cornet solo, Cy R. Merrill; songs, Joseph Salome and Arthur Claire, accompanied by Miss Hilda Carlson and Lester Heabeth; Bob Whalen also entertained with songs, accompanied by Thomas Jones; Thomas Knight gave an exhibition sleight of hand.

The honor roll of the Spindle City club is as follows: J. Blackstock, second aerial regiment; A. D. Gustafson, Battery F, 102nd Regiment; J. Hogan, 303rd Machine Gun Battalion; C. Lane, 35th Balloon Company; J. Mowatt, boatswain's mate, second class; A. McIntire, Canadian service signal corps; A. Cleghorn, S.C.I.C.; T. Cleghorn, First Machine Gun school; D. Naylor, Sixth Cavalry; C. Merrill, A.N.T.S.

MAY GET ARMY TANK AND AIRPLANE

As features of the welcome home parade for French American service men on Labor day, N. A. Delisle, secretary to John Jacob Rogers, is making strenuous efforts to secure an army tank and airplane for that of the military division of the parade and would have the airplane fly over the route of march.

EAGLES' OUTING

At a recent meeting of the members of the outing committee for the Lowell aerie of Eagles sub-committees were appointed as follows: General manager, Worthy President David J. ### COMMUNITY SING

A chorus of girls of the Community Singing league, directed by Louis Carpenter, led several hundred people in an enthusiastic sing on the North common last evening. As there is a large Greek colony in that neighborhood, familiar tunes of Greece predominated and a score of Greek young women from the International Institute formed a part of the chorus. Four pieces from the United States Cartridge Co. band furnished the music for the program.

LOWELL MAN AT LAWRENCE HOSPITAL

Mrs. John Coffey, of 103 Hale street, this city, last evening received word that her husband, employed as a stereotypist on the Lawrence Sun-American, had been taken to a Lawrence hospital, ostensibly as a result of being struck by an automobile. This, however, is denied by the police of Methuen, who say the Lowell man was taken sick on an electric car and later taken to the hospital. Mrs. Coffey believes her husband finished his day's work yesterday and was on his way home when he was either taken ill or struck by a passing vehicle of some sort and she inclines toward the latter belief because of the fact that he is seriously handicapped by deafness.

GOOD AIRPLANES WERE NOT DESTROYED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 13.—Complete refutation of statements made before house sub-committee investigating war expenditures that serviceable and valuable airplanes have been wantonly destroyed by the American Expeditionary Force is made in a statement by Col. M. M. Patrick, United States Engineers and late major general and chief of air service, A.E.F.

Statements that a "million dollars worth" of such planes were destroyed have been made before the sub-committee investigating war expenditures overseas, of which Representative Royal C. Johnson, republican, of South Dakota is chairman. At the morning's session of that committee, Gutzon Borglum, the sculptor who came to public attention by his investigation by Judge Hughes, filed several photographs of parts of planes purported to have been burned. Contrary to the opinion of experts in the army air service, Mr. Borglum made the unqualified statement to the committee that it was impossible to tell from the photographs whether a plane or its parts were actually serviceable and safe for flyers.

Denying that a single part of a plane from which the government could derive a penny of value either by sale or use had been destroyed, General Patrick prepared and filed with Representative Flood, a member of the Johnson committee, a statement in which he said:

General Patrick's statement
"When hostilities ceased, there were in possession of the American air service planes of varying types and all stages of repair, from new and unused planes to those which were complete wrecks. The question of their disposition was given careful study.

"I at once gave orders to return to the United States all DH-4 planes and all Liberty engines which were serviceable."

"About the disposition of the remainder ***** appointed boards of survey, each composed of officers of ability, who were conscientious and careful. Their orders were to inspect every plane in our possession and to recommend to me what should be done with each one."

General Patrick's statement then shows that the plane and material fell into four classes: Those which had been crashed, most of them in training service or in battle, and were beyond repair; those used at the training schools and which were worn out from wear and tear; others which had deteriorated in storage, planes being very delicate and deteriorating very rapidly, and others which were usable, but practically obsolete and which would have been discarded very soon even if the war had gone on, for modern machines.

"After having examined each of these planes," Gen. Patrick's statement continues, "the boards of survey arranged them in classes and recommended, in general, that they be offered for sale, and if unsalable, that they be salvaged. By 'salvaged' is meant the taking off of all valuable parts, such as motors, tires, instruments and the like, which can be used to repair other planes, or which have a money value."

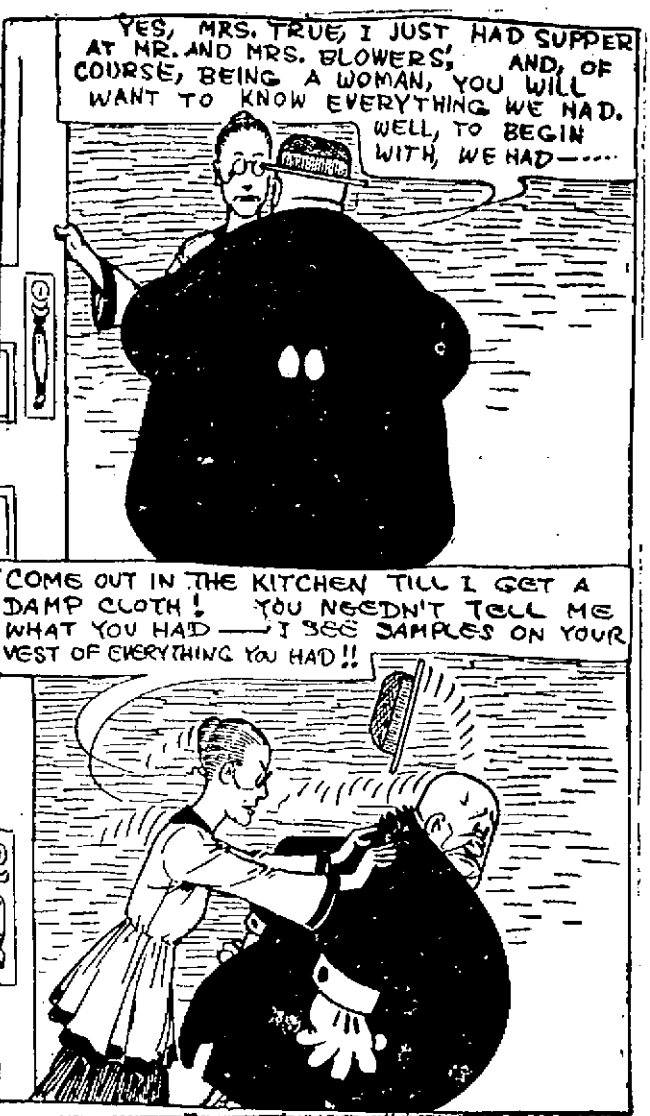

"I approved the recommendations of these boards. I inquired of the French government and was told that they would not purchase any of this material. There was no market for this material. It was, therefore, salvaged as outlined above. Some of the wooden fragments were sold and the remainder, which could not be used by us nor sold, was destroyed."

"I do not know of my own knowledge that a single usable plane was destroyed...but I am well satisfied that no plane was destroyed which could be disposed of in France, or which would have brought as much money in the United States as it would cost to get it here."

"The matter of shipping any of this material to the United States was fully considered. I had estimates made of the cost of storage, of packing and of transportation and I am quite convinced, in the cases of all the planes, which were salvaged, that this would have been decidedly uneconomical."

EVERETT TRUE

BY CONDO

The Waste of War
"The salvaging of this material was part of the inevitable waste of war, but the American air service in France did everything possible to reduce this waste to the minimum. It is apparent that it was necessary to decide whether it would pay to ship material to the United States, and after careful study and in the exercise of the best judgment, it was decided that this would be a further waste of government money. Attention may be called to the fact that the packing of a single DH-4 plane in the United States for shipment to France cost in round numbers about $250. Estimates made in France showed that it would cost there not less than about $500 to pack up a plane without the engine, that prior to packing it there would be a considerable expense while the planes were in storage, in order to keep them in condition, that there would be the cost of rail transportation and the cost of ocean transportation to the United States, with further freight charges and charges for handling after the packages arrived here. Some of the cases which contained the planes which were actually shipped to the United States occupy a space of not less than 1000 cubic feet. The size of this task and its costliness can be judged from these facts."

CONFIDENCE IN JAPAN

Prime Minister of New Zealand, Back From Peace Conference

HONOLULU, July 25.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Confidence in the good faith of Japan as regards her promises concerning the future of the Shantung peninsula, was expressed here by W. F. Massey, prime minister of New Zealand, who visited Honolulu on his way home from the peace conference, accompanied by Sir Joseph Ward, minister of finance of New Zealand.

Both declared their belief that the League of Nations would prove a success.

CLOTHING MANUFACTURERS TO DISCUSS LABOR

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—A conference to which every clothing manufacturer in the city is invited, will convene late today to discuss the labor situation.

The manufacturers complain that continuous demands for wage increases despite a wage scale agreed to by manufacturers and the union, and the shifting of labor from one factory to another, are running up costs to prohibitive heights and decreasing production. The union asserts that much of the trouble has been caused by manufacturers bidding against one another for the services of labor.

14,000 PAINTERS STRIKE IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Approximately 14,000 painters, decorators and paper-hangers went on strike today, bringing to a standstill renovation of hundreds of apartments being prepared for October lease.

The strikers demand a five day week of 40 hours, with a wage of $1 an hour. They have been receiving $6 a day for a 40-hour week.

MECHANUS' PIONIC

The McManus picnic for the poor children will take place Wednesday, August 20. Cars will leave the square at 9 o'clock. The picnic is to be held at Spalding park. The Spindle City band will furnish the music for the children. Mr. Harvey, the caterer, has charge of the luncheon, and will furnish sandwiches, lemonade and pies. At the grounds a long list of sports will be carried out and suitable prizes will be awarded the victors. Four policemen and as many firemen will run off the sporting events. It is largely through the generosity of the local business men and clergymen that this event is conducted. And Mr. McManus wishes to thank them one and all, who have for the past sixteen years helped to make this a success. The prizes were generously contributed by the following: Mr. Lyle, Mr. Freeman, Mr. Filion, Mr. Howe, Mr. Corbett, Empire Clothing Co., and John Henry Collins.

DISCOLORED OR SPOTTED SKIN EASILY PEELLED OFF

The freckling, discoloring or roughening to which most skins are subject at this season, may readily be gotten rid of. Ordinary mercurized wax spread lightly over the face before retiring and removed in the morning with soap and water, completely peels off the discolored skin. You need not get more than an ounce of the wax from your druggist.

There's no more effective way of banishing tan, freckles, liver spots, moth patches, or other cutaneous defects. Minute, almost invisible, skin particles come off each day, so the process itself doesn't even temporarily mar the complexion, and you soon acquire a brand new, spotless, girlishly beautiful face.—Adv.

N. H. SHOE WORKERS HELP LOWELL STRIKERS

A committee consisting of members of the Allied Shoe Workers' union, who have been on strike in this city for the past three weeks, went to Manchester, N. H., last evening in an endeavor to raise funds for the benefit of the Lowell strikers, and it was stated this morning that New Hampshire shoe workers were very generous in their donations.

The strikers held a meeting in their hall in Middle street this morning and transacted routine business. In the course of the meeting it was brought out that one of the police officers on duty Monday, had interfered with the picketers and it was voted to make charges against the officer to the mayor. It was also announced that some of the employees of the L. H. Spaulding Co. had received letters from the firm to the effect that the plant will re-open Thursday morning and that a conference between employees and employers will be held at the plant of the company this afternoon.

DEATHS IN BATTLE OF A. E. F. ARE 49,498

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Final casualty reports from the central records office of the American Expeditionary forces in France, made public here today, gave the total battle deaths as 49,498, total wounded 205,680 and prisoners 4,480. "Only slight revisions" will be made in this report, it was announced.

Recent corrections have reduced the missing to only 127 names, as compared with 204,000 for France and 121,000 for England. To July 1 the army had reported 149,443 cases of disabled soldiers to the war risk insurance bureau. It was estimated the final total would be close to 300,000.

TURKISH LEADER FLEES TO ASIA MINOR

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 13.—Hail Pasha, former minister of marine and uncle of Enver Pasha, former minister of war, has escaped to Asia Minor with Kitchik Talat, another leader of the committee of union and progress. It is believed he will join Mustapha Kiamil Pasha in Erzerum.

The Turkish cabinet recently ordered the arrest of Mustapha Kiamil, Hail Pasha and Reuf Bey, on charge of conspiring a separatist congress and organizing armed bands in the Smyrna and Erzerum districts.

WOULD REDUCE PRICES ROBBER SHOOTS HIMSELF

Sen. McKellar Urges Federal Regulation of Cold Storage of Food

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Federal regulation of cold storage of food was urged in the senate today by Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, as a certain means of reducing the high cost of living and as the only remedy for "the most outrageous piece of profiteering that can be imagined."

Speaking in support of his bill, first introduced in 1913 and now as reintroduced before the senate, commerce committee considering recommendations of the president, he said if the bill had been passed in 1913, some of the present conditions would not exist.

Used to Control Prices
"The cold storage system is used by the packers," he said, "for the purpose of controlling prices. As used by the packers, it preserves in seasons of plenty and permits them to withhold such large quantities of foodstuffs from the market as to make a season of scarcity at any time they see fit and thus they increase the price to the consuming public."

His bill would limit the time food could be held in cold storage. He cited recent statistics of the federal trade commission of food showing vast increases over the amounts stored last year. He compared retail prices, secured from the manager of the senate restaurant, showing large increases in price, despite the increased supplies in storage.

60-2-3 Per Cent. Profit
"Some middlemen," he said, "is making 60-2-3 per cent. profit on eggs alone. The only possible way in which these prices can be manipulated is through the medium of the cold storage. Put a limit on the time in which these goods can be held and the packers will be compelled to sell."

"Eggs are in the hands of the most giant monopoly there is in the world. The price the packers pay and the price at which they are sold is out of all proportion and they never will come down until eggs are stamped and regulated."

The senator said meat and poultry often were held too long in storage. Chickens, he asserted, were stored without removal of their heads and entrails, conducing to quick putrefaction after they were taken from storage.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The weather bureau today gave warning of a north-east storm from Delaware Breakwater to Boston. Disturbances on the Virginia coast, increasing in intensity, will move northward and cause strong north-east winds this afternoon and tonight.

Sen. McKellar Urges Federal Regulation of Cold Storage of Food

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—A hold-up man, entering the banking rooms of the Munsey Trust Co. in the heart of the uptown business section today, pointed two pistols at a teller, demanded $100 and then after firing one shot at a clerk, turned a pistol on himself. He shot himself in the jaw and was taken to a hospital.

Two money orders issued at Defiance and Toledo, Ohio, were found in the man's clothing. When he demanded the money the teller first making a show of counting bills, then dropped behind his counter as the robber fired a bullet that pierced the coat of a clerk nearby. The bullet the robber intended for himself went through his jaw and then shattered a plate glass window.

The man told the police his name was John E. Folger of Defiance, Ohio, and that his uncle, Charles R. Folger of the same city, could tell "why he couldn't get a head." The man is a mechanic, 34 years old. He came here today from New York.

He said he picked out Washington because he understood there was plenty of money in the capital and that a holdup was easy. He said he previously had been in a Detroit hospital suffering from an electric shock.

THE STRAND
"The Crimson Gardenia," the thrilling mystery melodrama from the pen of Rex Beach, and listed among Goldwyn's latest and best picture productions, is winning merited recognition with patrons at The Strand. Today offers the last chance of seeing "The Crimson Gardenia" in its entirety. The picture is seen to particular advantage in it and he is receiving the assistance of several noted favorites of the Rip. Bessie Love is the other star appearing in a tantalizing and wholesome picture play called "Cupid Fore-closes." The subject is Rose McDonough Stanton, a former Lowell girl, and the other features on the bill are most acceptable. Remember today is the last day of this big bill. Tomorrow Mrs. Allison in "The Uplifter," and H. R. Warner in "The Pagan God" will be shown. The Strand is Lowell's favorite theatre, as well as the biggest and best. It's always cool, clean and comfortable.

CARMEN GET WAGE INCREASE

War Labor Board Awards 12

P. C. Raise to Bay State Employees

Company Protested—Taft Replies for Board—Other Increases

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The war labor board at its final session here yesterday granted an increase of 12 per cent. in wages to employees of 10 traction companies centering in Boston, Pittsburg and Cleveland.

Among the companies whose employees wage increases were granted was the Bay State Railway Co. The first case considered was that of the Eastern Massachusetts Railway (the Bay State). The employees ask a minimum wage of 50 cents an hour and a maximum of 60 cents. Their present rate of pay is 41 to 45 cents an hour.

Homer Loring, chairman of the trustees, appeared in opposition to the men's demands. He claimed that the financial condition of the company would not permit the increase, but he was interrupted by William Taft, joint chairman of the board, who said: "This board has said so often that the question of the wages of men is not to be determined by the financial condition of the company."

Mr. Loring said that in spite of an increase of 105 per cent. in fares the increase in revenue had been only 14 per cent.

The board refused to abrogate a previous decision making a 44-hour week in the Patterson, N. J., silk mills effective Oct. 1. A company representing the employees of more than 500 silk mills in Patterson requested that the 44-hour week be made effective immediately, but the board decided that the award would stand unless parties to the present dispute should agree otherwise in the meantime.

Two awards were made personally by Chairman Taft in cases where the members of the board had been unable to agree and had voted to allow Mr. Taft to act as sole referee.

When the board finally adjourned only one case was pending, a claim by the employees of the Bethlehem Steel mills for back pay amounting to $1,500,000. This case is being adjusted by an arbitrator for the board.

In a statement issued after the final adjournment it was stated that in the 18 months of the board's existence it had adjusted more than 1200 labor disputes and had succeeded in preventing any serious labor trouble or interference with war material during the war. The cost of the upkeep and operation of the board was $100,000.

erations of the board was placed at approximately $750,000, which was paid out of President Wilson's war emergency fund. The appropriation was exhausted on June 30 and no request was made to Congress for further funds, so that since that time the members of the board and their staff have served without compensation.

Carmen Dissatisfied
BOSTON, Aug. 13.—Bay State railway carmen were dissatisfied and bitterly disappointed last night when they learned that the war labor board, sitting in New York yesterday, had awarded them a 12 per cent increase in wages. The increase will give the uniformed employees a maximum of 50 to 60 cents an hour in contrast to the 40 cents an hour recently granted the Boston Elevated carmen after a four-day strike.

The Bay State men asked for 73½ cents an hour, the same wage asked for by the Elevated men, and they confidently expected that the war labor board would give them a wage equal or nearly equal to the wage of the Elevated men.

The rank and file of the Bay State men manifested much displeasure at the award of the board and some of them held to the hope that the board had granted an increase of 12 cents an hour instead of a 12 per cent increase, as reported in press despatches. They predicted that there would be much protest over the award and intimated that it might precipitate a strike or at least an effort to reopen the case before the war labor board.

The men asserted that there would be meetings of the various locals on the Bay State to take action on the question, and a meeting occurred early this morning at Chelsea.

It was intimated from official sources among the Bay State officials that they feared the award would be very unsatisfactory to the men. They declined to be quoted on the matter, however. Some suggested that the award might be 12 cents an hour increase, instead of 12 per cent, which would give the men a maximum of 57 cents an hour, an amount that would have been slightly less than the Elevated maximum, and probably satisfactory.

Officers of the Bay State unions were in New York, together with James H. Vahey, counsel for the union men on the Bay State. None of them could be reached, but Bay State employees seen on the cars of the company and elsewhere expressed keen displeasure and predicted that there "would be something doing."

The increase granted is retroactive to June 1. The award was made at the final session of the board in New York at which time similar awards to employees of nine other traction companies centering in Pittsburg and Cleveland were made.

Under the award approximately 3400 uniformed employees of the Bay State and 1600 other employees will benefit.

Under a previous award of the war labor board the men were receiving 41 cents an hour the first three months, 43 cents an hour the next nine months, and 45 cents an hour after that time.

Lowell's Share $110,000
BOSTON, Aug. 13.—Discussing the 12 per cent increase in wages awarded by the national war labor board to the carmen of the Eastern Massachusetts railways, Chairman Homer Loring of the board of public trustees of the property, said today that the raise would amount to almost $1,000,000 the first year. He pointed out that the statistics published show an increase of 71 per cent in the cost of living since 1914, and that in the same period the wages of conductors and motormen of the system have increased 50 to 72 per cent.

"Under the new home rule plan of operation," he continued, "the carmen increase will have to be borne by the car riders in the 12 districts."

River's share will be approximately $50,000, Lowell's $110,000, Lynn's $100,000, Brockton's $100,000 and other cities proportionately.

"The trustees fear that this large increase in wages will prevent fares from being reduced in the near future, ment of 200 more miles of poor paying track."

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 13.—More than a million eggs, hundreds of thousands of tins of canned foods and 27,500 pounds of sugar were seized here today in a raid on wholesale food warehouses and cold storage plants by federal officers.

CONGRESS ASKED TO VOTE MONEY

Department Wants $1,000,000 to Carry Out Wilson's Plan to Cut Living Cost

Amendments Extending Food Control Act to Meet Necessities of Life

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Appropriations aggregating nearly $1,000,000 with which to help carry out the president's suggestions for reducing the cost of living were asked of congress today by the commerce and labor departments.

While the senate debated the high cost of living today, congressional committees gave further consideration to measures designed to curb profiteering and hoarding.

Amendments extending the food control act to most necessities of life and imposing severe penalties upon those guilty of gouging the public were taken up by the house agriculture committee while the senate interstate commerce sub-committee organized and decided upon procedure in handling measures for the regulation of corporations doing an interstate business in necessities.

The department of commerce asked for $410,000 to be used in an endeavor to guarantee full weight and measure on all foodstuffs, ice, coal and other commodities and in standardizing staples grades of commodities by eliminating the less useful ones, thus eliminating waste.

The department of labor asked for $475,000 for the employment of 19 experts, 200 special agents and a number of clerks.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Amendments extending the anti-profiteering sections of the food control act to wearing apparel, tools, utensils, implements and containers of foods, feeds and fertilizers and imposing penalties for violating the act, were sent to the house agricultural committee today by Attorney General Palmer. The amendments were in line with suggestions made by President Wilson in his address to congress last week, and they provide a fine not exceeding $500 or imprisonment for not more than two years for those convicted of violating the act.

Mr. Palmer wrote that "the amendments would be helpful in efforts to reduce the high cost of living if they could be promptly enacted."

REFUSES TO OBEY ALLIED ORDER

Rumanian High Commissioner
Sends Message to Inter-
Allied Military Board

Denies Ultimatum—Allied
Generals Ask Paris for Instructions on Orders

PARIS, Aug. 13.—Constantine Diamandy, Rumanian high commissioner at Budapest, according to a message received today, informed the inter-allied military commission that he would not obey its orders, but had been authorized to negotiate with it. The allied general thereupon telegraphed to Paris asking if they were right in considering instructions from the peace conference as military orders.

M. Diamandy denied that his government had supported the movement which placed Archduke Joseph in control in Budapest. He said he would study the representations made concerning requisitions of foodstuffs and material by the Rumanians.

He also denied that the Rumanian government had sent an ultimatum to Archduke Joseph. He said it had only sent an informal document through a liaison officer. As the document insisted upon the frontier established by the allies between Hungary and Rumania in 1916, when Rumania entered the war, the conference regards the communication as distinctly an ultimatum intended to supersede the action of the conference.

The orders which M. Diamandy refused to accept were based on instructions to the inter-allied mission to carry out the disarmament of the Hungarians in accordance with terms of an armistice of November, 1918.

To Meet This Afternoon
PARIS, Aug. 13.—(By the Associated Press)—The inter-allied supreme council was summoned to meet at 2:30 o'clock today to consider the Hungarian situation.

CAR SHOP WORKERS AWAIT VOTE COUNT

The result of the vote taken by the strikers of the Boston & Maine car shops at Billerica to determine if the men will return to work pending further orders from the international body, will be made known at a mass meeting of the strikers, which will be held in Odd Fellows hall, Middlesex street, Friday night, so it was stated this morning. The meeting, which is being called by President Golden, will be for all crafts of the shop and it is expected a large attendance will be on hand.

The members of the Machinists' union, affiliated with the crafts, held a meeting this morning in their hall at Middlesex street, but no statement as to the doings of the meeting was given out for publication. This afternoon at 3 o'clock the members of the executive board of the affiliated crafts held a meeting in Odd Fellows temple, Middlesex street.

CITY IN ROLE OF GROCERYMAN

Surplus Government Food to be Placed on Sale Tomorrow Morning

Sale Will Continue as Long as Food Lasts, at Red Cross
Headquarters

Lowell will assume the role of groceryman tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock when a carload of surplus government food will be placed on sale at cost in the large airy workroom of the Red Cross in Market street, the former Hallowell plant. Every last detail has been taken care of, the food is piled up awaiting purchasers, the distributing staff has been completed, prices arranged and the next step is up to the housewives of the city.

The food variety will include bacon, roast beef, corned beef hash, canned peas, corn and tomatoes. The amounts bought by the city and the prices for which they will be sold are as follows: 84 12-lb. cans bacon, $4.15 per can; 165 6-lb. cans roast beef, $1.90 per can; 4032 1-lb. cans corned beef, 30¢ per can; 11332 26-ounce cans corned beef, 55¢ per can; 504 cans corned beef hash, 37¢ per can; 5532 cans peas, 10¢ per can; 6000 cans corn, 10¢ per can; 3744 cans tomatoes, 12¢ per can.

The food is of the best, according to testimony given by Lowell doctors who served overseas and made their diet very greatly on government food. There are no bones in the meats sold and besides the initial low cost, the housekeeper will also save the expense of cooking as all the canned meats have first been cooked.

Prospective purchasers are warned to bring baskets or bags as the cans are of irregular sizes and hard to carry. No wrapping paper will be furnished at the salesroom as the city does not wish to incur any more overhead expense than is absolutely necessary. The Red Cross will have full charge.

STATIONARY FIREMEN ARE STILL OUT

There is no change in the strike of the stationary firemen employed in the local cotton mills. One of the officials of the Stationary Firemen's union stated this morning that strikebreakers are being brought to this city from out-of-town. He said the cotton mill firemen jure the lowest paid men of that craft and the only workmen employed 12 hours a day. He said the pay of the cotton mill firemen is between 43 and 54 cents an hour.

This official quoted a list of prices paid in the different local concerns, stating that the American Hide & Leather Co. pays its firemen $34.50 a week, the Lowell Gas Light Co. and the American Woolen Co. $32.50 and the Avery Chemical Co. $32.50 a week. In Manchester, N. H., the stationary firemen are receiving $31.34 a week, while at Fall River they are being paid $30 a week, and in all these places the firemen work 48 hours a week. He said in Lowell the firemen are asking a minimum wage of $5 a day and an eight-hour day.

EDWARD S. HOSMER DEAD

Fire Fighter for More Than Half a Century and Chief for 30 Years

Edward S. Hosmer, for 30 years chief engineer of the Lowell fire department, from which position he retired in 1913, died last night at his home in Westford street, at the age of 81 years. Death came as he slept and quietly and without pain, or suffering brought a well lived life to a close. Although in recent months he had not ventured far from his home he was out of doors almost every day and it was only on Monday afternoon that he sat with his family on the piazza. His death marks the passing of one of the oldest of Lowell's fire fighters. He gave over 55 years of his active life to this work and, through conscientious endeavor and untiring resolve to the position of chief. It was as head of the department that Lowell people knew him best and with the exception of about three years he held that position from 1880 until he was honorably retired May 1, 1913. There is not a single man in the department today who does not feel an individual sense of loss and this feeling is shared by hundreds of the city's men and women.

For years men of the department have familiarly referred to him as "the grand old man," an encomium he earned through constant application of sterling qualities of leadership. He not only served the department well as its chief, but brought honor to the city. He graced the office with dignity and never called upon his

PLANS TO GIVE BULGARIA OPENING TO SEA

PARIS, Aug. 13.—The supreme council, the Echo de Paris says, is preparing to give Bulgaria an opening to the Mediterranean sea through Dedegatch or Kavala. The territory surrounding the port selected would be neutralized and placed under a status similar to Danzig.

That portion of Thrace given Bulgaria at the close of the Balkan wars included Dedegatch. The Bulgarians and Germans built a railroad from Central Bulgaria to Dedegatch.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE IN DRACUT TODAY

Practical demonstrations of tractor ploughing and of a power cultivator featured the meeting of the Farmers' Institute at the farm of F. D. and A. R. Bryant, Marsh Hill, Dracut, today. Nearly 100 members of the institute, with friends, thoroughly enjoyed the informal program and the opportunity to closely inspect this splendid farm. At 11 o'clock, W. D. Hemenway, a state officer, spoke on "Beautifying the Home and the Community," and this afternoon W. R. Kinney, secretary of the Worcester County Horticultural society, gave a most interesting talk on "An Eight Acre High School Garden," showing the possibilities of such amateur gardening if proper care is exercised.

The visitors enjoyed a basket luncheon at noon and Hibbard's orchestra of Lowell gave an enjoyable program. After dinner speeches added a touch of good fellowship and the entire day was one of the most pleasant and profitable of the season.

Senate Committee Agrees to Speedy Action on Peace Pact After Stormy Session

Six Bolshevik Battalions Destroyed

LONDON, Aug. 13.—Six Bolshevik battalions were destroyed in a successful Anglo-Russian offensive on the Dvina river on Aug. 10, the war office announced today. More than one thousand prisoners, 12 field guns and many machine guns were captured.

Viscount Grey Accepts Post

LONDON, Aug. 13.—Viscount Grey, former British secretary of state for foreign affairs, has agreed to represent the British government at Washington pending the appointment of a permanent ambassador. Lord Grey consented to go to Washington temporarily, Andrew Bonar Law said in the house of commons today, in order to deal particularly with questions arising out of the peace settlement.

Mr. Bonar Law added that a permanent ambassador to the United States would be appointed early next year.

Viscount Grey of Fallodon (Sir Edward Grey) comes to the United States to represent the British government after a brilliant career as head of the British foreign office. For 11 years he was secretary of state for foreign affairs—from December, 1905, to December 11, 1916.

Since his retirement from the foreign office, Viscount Grey has been living in retirement in Northumberland. He has been described as "almost an ascetic in his personal life."

U. S. STEAMER STRIKES MINE

The Englewood in Distress
in North Sea Sends Wireless Call for Help

Tugs Stood by as She Made for the Thames Under Own Steam

DOVER, England, Aug. 13.—The American steamer Englewood struck a mine in the North sea, off the Thames river today, and sent out a wireless message for help. Tugs stood by and she made for the Thames under her own steam. It was planned to beach her at Sheerness if necessary.

The Englewood, 5123 tons, left New York July 30 for Rotterdam. She was built on Staten Island in 1915 for the United States shipping board. Black Deep is off the mouth of the Thames river about 20 miles east of Southend.

The message read: "In the direction of Zhemerkina, we have abandoned Vinnitsa. The enemy has abandoned Lutsk."

Withdrawal from Vinnitsa indicates that the Rumanians and anti-bolshevik forces have forced the bolsheviks to retire from the line of the River Dniester in northeastern Bessarabia.

BOARD LETS CONTRACT FOR FISHWAYS

(Special to The Sun)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Aug. 13.—The contract for building fishways in the Merrimack river at Lawrence was awarded by the board of commissioners on fisheries and game yesterday to George T. Seabury, Inc., of Providence, R. I. The fishway is to be constructed around the dam of the Essex company, to enable migratory fish to reach the upper waters of the river for spawning purposes.

In connection with the letting of the contract, the commissioners issued the following statement: "The commissioners are very desirous of having this fishway installed during the period of low water, and the construction company has been notified to get on the ground and begin the work as soon as possible."

"The building of this fishway is in line with the work which the commission is doing in stocking the Merrimack river with salmon in an effort to restore the salmon fisheries for which this river was formerly famous."

SEN. HITCHCOCK URGES ACTION

Threat of Attempt to Force
Vote on Treaty in Senate
Is Heeded

Lodge and Others Agree to Hasten Action—Fall opposed Plan

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—At a stormy session today the senate foreign relations committee agreed to expedite consideration of the peace treaty. Re-reading of disputed sections and the consideration of possible amendments will begin tomorrow.

Senator Hitchcock, Nebraska, ranking democrat of the committee, was understood to have told the committee that unless there was early committee action an attempt might be made to force a vote on the treaty in the senate.

Chairman Lodge and others were understood to have expressed assent to the proposal to hasten the committee's consideration, but Senator Fall, republican, New Mexico, was said to have taken the position that any precipitate action would be impracticable.

During the debate, which was in executive session, it was reported members had a bitter argument. Senator Fall declared that Senator Hitchcock and others had questioned the motives of the republicans and made unfair reflections on the committee's course. Senator Hitchcock was said to have replied with equal vigor.

It was said Senator Hitchcock told the committee there was an increasing demand in the senate and throughout the country that the treaty be disposed of and that he expressed the belief that virtually every senator already had made up his mind how he would vote. Senator Lodge is understood to have replied that he also favored action as soon as practicable, but that so far there had been no avoidable delay in the treaty's consideration.

Senator Fall gave it as his opinion that to hasten ratification would be unwise as settlements to which the United States would be asked to assent still were to be determined in other treaties not yet in the hands of the senate. The discussion in the committee was interpreted as related to the insistence for action by the group of republican senators who have agreed on a reservation program which they believe will have the ultimate assent of the democratic leaders. They also expect that in their plan they will have the co-operation of Senator Lodge.

allege are responsible for the famine. Hubby, too, is getting peeved. Although he admits that on occasion he has drunk his morning coffee "clear," he avers that he doesn't want to get the habit. And the kiddies don't like the idea of eating their cereals unsweetened. Also they miss the cake and pie—and pudding too,—which in the days before the shortage were daily visitors to the family table.

Fortress of Dubno Captured
From Bolsheviki Forces by Ukrainians

VIENNA, Aug. 13.—The fortress of Dubno, in southeastern Volhynia, has been captured from the bolshevik forces by the Ukrainian army, according to Ukrainian official reports received here today.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—The city of Vinnitsa, in the Ukraine, 125 miles southwest of Kiev, has been abandoned by the bolsheviks, according to a wireless message from Moscow. In Volhynia, anti-bolshevik forces have occupied the railway center of Lutsk, southeast of Kovel.

The message read: "In the direction of Zhemerkina, we have abandoned Vinnitsa. The enemy has abandoned Lutsk."

SUGAR FAMINE STILL ON IN LOWELL

No change was evident today in Lowell's sugar situation. Although some stores have a small supply of the loaf sugar, the real article, which has so much to do with making mother's pies and pastry the envy of her neighbors, is about as scarce as the proverbial hen's teeth; and no hopes are held out by the wholesalers that the shortage may be abated soon.

"We haven't got any and we have no hopes of securing any considerable amount at present" is the tale that the wholesale men tell. With the retailers the situation is the same. Restauranters have in most cases substituted loaf sugar for the granulated article on their tables, and one restaurant today was unable to furnish its patrons with sugar of any description.

No one is willing to hazard a guess as to the length of time before Lowellites will again be able to see this succulent sweet before them in its usual and most acceptable form. And in the meantime the housewives of the city are breathing strange words against the "profiteers" whom they

TO PREVENT STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

(Special to The Sun)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Aug. 13.—A proposed amendment of the constitution, which would give the general court authority to prohibit strikes and lockouts, was presented to the constitutional convention yesterday afternoon by John D. W. Bodfish, the blind delegate from Barnstable.

The amendment offered by Mr. Bodfish reads as follows:
"The general court shall, at its session next following the adoption of this amendment, provide for the adjudication of disputes between employers and employees and for the prevention of lockouts, strikes and other causes of involuntary or unnecessary unemployment, and shall fix the penalties, and the general court may, from time to time thereafter, make such other provisions as may be reasonable or necessary to carry out the provisions of this amendment."

The matter was referred to the committee on rules and procedure, and subsequently Delegate Bodfish made an eloquent plea before that committee for a suspension of the rule prohibiting the consideration of new business, in order that the question might be referred to the people.

During the past 12 months, he said, the public has been almost constantly harassed by one strike after another, and the opinion prevails in the minds of many that a portion, at least, of the present high cost of living is directly attributable to the use of strikes as a means to artificially inflate costs of production. For these reasons, he said, he believed the public would welcome an opportunity to vote upon the question as to whether or not arbitration of all labor disputes should be made compulsory.

The committee decided, however, to adhere to its original plan to admit no new matters for consideration, and unless the convention overturns the report it is likely that its deliberations will be completed Wednesday.

ST. JOHN'S HOSPITAL ANNUAL REPORT

The annual report of St. John's hospital for 1917 and 1918, the first and 521 years of the hospital's existence, has just been made public and contains the usual interesting quota of facts and figures concerning the activities of this humanitarian and benevolent institution. The statistical report shows that 2034 patients were treated during the two years and 1873 of these were discharged after being cured, 787 were discharged and declared improved, 70 discharged, unimproved, and 235 died. At the end of 1918 there were still 49 patients remaining in the hospital. There were 3258 accident cases brought to the hospital during the two years, 1933 surgical operations were performed and 14,201 cases were treated in the out-patient department.

The financial report shows an indebtedness at the end of 1918 of $163,721.21. Of this amount, $8000 is assigned to the mortgage, $2,456.26 to current bills and $152,265.65 to the new building.

Dr. Leonard Huntress, president of the hospital staff, says in his introduction to the report:

"For a great many years and of course notably in our recent epidemic of influenza this hospital, because of its insufficient size, has been unable to do justice to the demands made upon it. For the last decade friends of St. John's hospital have been hoping, and until the present time apparently hoping against hope, for what we can now see with our eyes. Before the snow flies the annex (with a capital A) will be completed. D. V., and the capacity of this hospital will be more than doubled.

"I wish to say a word in regard to our training school for nurses, and I believe I shall say enough when I assure you that this school is living up to its established reputation. It does not seem out of place to congratulate the people of this city upon the existence of four excellent training schools for nurses in Lowell and vicinity. The school at the state infirmary in Tewksbury, the school at the Lowell General hospital, the one at the Lowell Corporation hospital and the one here. In our late epidemic, nurses from each of these schools did good and necessary work in this city.

"Whenever a patient is fortunate enough to be cared for by a nurse from either one of those schools, he realizes the truth of the saying that, it was the advent of the training school which raised the occupation of the nurse to the dignity of a profession."

The Sisters of Charity, in their section of the report, state that they are happy to announce that they are on "the threshold of the realization of a long cherished hope, the opening of a much talked of and much needed addition." They state that they are deeply grateful for the generous help given by the public of Lowell. They also extend their appreciation to various individuals and agencies which have assisted in carrying on the work of the hospital.

WAYS TO COOK THE GREEN CORN

BY DIDDY BYE

Every good American is reveling in his own native dish these days—literally up to his ears in sweet corn!

No need to compete with the poets in the praise of this most delectable summer vegetable—only need to suggest the only proper way to cook it and still more ways to serve it.

At its best green corn is only boiled a little in salted water. The chef at a famous hotel serves and cooks it this way.

Salt water to taste and bring fully to the boiling point. Husk the corn, but do not remove the soft inner husk lying directly next the grain. Put the ears into the salted water, bring to a boil again and cook rapidly for six minutes.

Another method is baked steamed corn, prepared as follows:

To prepare the corn strip back the husks but do not remove them. Strip off the silk, replace the husks over the grains, and soak the ears in cold water for two hours. Have the oven very hot, lay the corn in a deep baking or dripping pan, cover well with a lid or another pan and steam 15 minutes. Send the corn to the table hot and covered with a napkin.

Corn Pudding

Choose 5 ears of fresh, tender green corn, and score the rows down the center and grate it from the cob. Beat the whites and yolks of 2 eggs separately. Add the beaten yolks to 1 tablespoonful of melted butter and ½ tablespoonful of sugar. Beat all very light and add 1 pint of milk and ¼ teaspoonful of salt. Blend well and add the grated corn. Beat again then add the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff froth. Fold in the whites, pour in a greased baking dish and set in the oven covered with a piece of brown paper. Bake slowly for an hour, serve hot, removing paper to let brown at the last moment.

Corn Fritters

Grate 5 ears of tender sweet corn from the cob. Beat 1 egg well, white and yolk together, and slowly add the grated corn heating it in thoroughly. Add 1 tablespoonful of melted butter and ¼ pint of milk. Add 1 tablespoonful of flour or just enough to thicken. Drop by spoonfuls in hot fat and brown. Serve with chicken or crisp bacon.

LOWELL GRADUATES AT CAMP DEVENS

Five Lowell boys were among a large class comprising representatives of all parts of the country recently graduated from the motor transport school at Camp Devens. They were Henry J. Mallouin, Dracut; Paul Taylor 11 Common street; Hyman Golden, 623 School street; Jacob Golden, 628 School street, and Corp Jesse Marcus. The school was conducted by the Knights of Columbus. Diplomas were presented by General McCain, commanding officer of the camp, and Mrs. McCain was also present. Other speakers included John C. Riley, dean of the faculty; Chaplain John J. Connolly and Major J. N. Merrill.

HOD CARRIERS GET INCREASE

After being granted an increase in wages of ten cents an hour, the hod carriers of this city, who went out on strike last week, returned to work yesterday. The men are now receiving 79 cents an hour.

IT WHISPERS OF PARIS

BY BETTY BROWN

"Undeniably French" must be the unspoken comment of the keen observer of such an evening frock as this sketched for Fashion Art. And French it is—one of the beloved corsetless models which conceal a most artful corset.

The bodice is of white tulle, richly overhung with crystal chains. The skirt and slender train are black satin, and a surplice of black chiffon crosses the corsage, ending under a girdle of jeweled and jet ornaments.

NAVY SMOKER AT COMMUNITY CLUB

Final arrangements for the "navy smoker" to be held next Friday evening at the Community Service club on Dutton street were made at the regular meeting of the Enlisted Naval War Veterans association at their headquarters in the club last night, and President Bird and Secretary Cahill, in charge of the program, reported that the event promises to be one of the most successful ever. Every member of the organization is expected to be on hand and invitations have been issued to Mayor Perry D. Thompson, the municipal council and officers of the K. of C.

A host of original features are planned for the smoker, including a "lim dipper" wait, "barrel fight" and other events which are positively new in the Spindle City. All in all it will be a real honest-to-goodness smoker as it is given on Uncle Sam's big dreadnoughts, and the time of his life is promised to all those attending.

MOHAIR PLUSH STRIKERS

The weavers at the Massachusetts Mohair Plush mill, who are out on strike, expect that their grievances will be settled before the week is over. The men who have left their work after being refused an increase in wages, held a conference with Supl. Aveyard of the mill last Friday evening and they have arranged for another conference this week. The strikers held a meeting last evening in Odd Fellows' hall, Middlesex street and transacted routine business.

ARCHDUCKE JOSEPH FERDINAND

"GOVERNOR" OF HUNGARY

BUDAPEST, August.—Archduke Joseph, who was one of the commanders of the Austrian army during the war, instead of being tried for high crimes is to be recognized by the entente as governor of state of Hungary. And Joseph is a Hapsburg! His immediate problem is to deal with the Rumanian invasion of Hungary.

OWL THEATRE WILL OPEN TOMORROW

The new Owl Theatre opens its second fall and winter season under management of Ray Averill tomorrow afternoon at 1:30, the policy of the house to be a continuous showing of pictures from 1:30 to 10 p. m.

Manager Averill begins his second season in Lowell with a great deal of personal satisfaction. He believes the season of 1919-1920 will not only be the best season the Owl has ever enjoyed but that all Lowell picture houses will enjoy prosperity in greater volume than ever before. One of the reasons for Mr. Averill's satisfaction is that the hard preliminary work of gaining the confidence of Lowell theatregoers and establishing the Owl firmly in the confidence of the public here as a clean and entertaining place in which to spend one's time, is now finished. He feels that The Owl is accepted and has made a place for itself in Lowell and drawn a sufficient number of people as regular patrons to maintain it profitably to its owners. North Chelmsford will be treasurer

the Liberty Amusement company.

Another thing which has pleased Manager Averill very much is the fact that he has been able to contract for the showing at his theatre of a large number of the men and women film stars who are favorites in this city. Film stars as in the spoken drama, work at different times for different companies and consequently in the opening bill tomorrow and for the balance of the week, Jack Pickford, Mary's brother, and star of Tom Sawyer, Seventeen, The Tarmin and other successful photo plays seen at the theatre here having the Paramount pictures, is seen at the Owl in "Bill Apperson's Boy."

The lovable Charles Ray and Norma Talmadge, Anita Stewart, Olive Thomas and other great stars have been signed for to be seen at the Owl and this means that Owl patrons this season will in fact see entirely new faces on the screen.

Mr. Averill is to be assisted by John Bewey as his assistant, Charles Larue will be in charge of projection and it is expected Miss Ruby Emery of maintain it profitably to its owners. North Chelmsford will be treasurer and be in charge of the ticket sellers.

The courteous and accommodating people who staff the Owl will win many friends for it. The Owl's prices this season are 11 and 17 cents afternoons, 11 and 23 cents for the evening show. The Owl phone number is 531 and patrons can always phone to find out the program and time the star feature is shown. Other interesting and unusual features now in contemplation are to be announced a little later.

Before taking your train home from Boston get The Sun at either newsstand in the North station.

FRANK WANGSTROM MISSING

The Lowell police are searching today for Frank Wangstrom, 37, of 75 East Merrimack street, who has been missing from his home since August 5. Wangstrom is said to have been in a despondent mood following injuries he received on July 1 when he fell from a fourth story window of the Massachusetts mill, which necessitated his spending two weeks in the hospital. He is described as 5 feet 5 inches in height, weighs 155 pounds and has a wound on the top of his head not entirely healed. When last seen he was wearing a blue suit, brown hat and black shoes.

FOR STRONG AND NEW GERMANY

Erzberger Urges Creation of Mercantile Fleet and Help With State Advances

Must Raise Big Sum to Pay War Obligations—Favor Use of Germans in France

BERLIN, Aug. 13.—(By the Associated Press)—"We must proceed immediately to create a mercantile fleet and help Germans abroad, with state advances," said Matthias Erzberger, vice premier and minister of finance of the German government, speaking before the national assembly at Weimar yesterday. He promised the assembly that a bill carrying out these projects would be presented in a few weeks.

He added that the loan situation must be given consideration, declaring that the German nation must raise 25,000,000,000 marks yearly in taxes in order to regain a healthy condition.

"The storm will come because it must come," he added. "I am constantly at work on the regular budget which will be submitted on October 1. The liquidation of our war undertakings must be completed as soon as possible."

"Under the peace treaty, we have undertaken heavy obligations which we must observe with an honest will. A big property levy is the first step on the path of imperial financial reform. This will afford a possibility of reducing the floating debt and abolishing the vicious paper regime." Erzberger declared that foodstuffs could not remain unburdened. Referring to the use of German labor in the reconstruction of northern France, he said that this was the only possible means of reparation.

"The entire system of taxation to be completed during the course of the years," he continued, "will be an accomplishment which will be a blessing to the German people and which will help to create a new and strong Germany built upon justice and democracy."

INCREASE IN SHIPMENTS OF ANTHRACITE

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 13.—Shipments of anthracite for July, as reported to the Anthracite bureau of information, aggregated 6,052,334 tons, an increase over June of 432,743 tons. Compared with July, 1918, the latest normal year in anthracite production, the shipments last month showed an increase of 619,456 tons.

The shipments for the first four months of the coal year beginning April 1, amounted to 22,608,555 tons, as compared with 21,146,536 tons for the corresponding period in 1918.

BUY SHOW FOR $150,000

Co-Stars in Boston Production

Purchase Rights Just Before Curtain Rises

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—To forestall an imminent strike call from the Actors' Equity association, Miss Peggy Wood, Donald Brian and Wallace Eddinger, co-stars in the new comedy, "Buddies," which opened last night at the Park Square theatre, bought the entire rights of the production from Selwyn & Co., New York theatrical magnates, signing the papers just before the curtain raised last evening. The sale price was $150,000. Each of the well known stars is an equal owner. The transaction is looked upon as a neat bit of camouflage to let the actors out from obeying the strike call.

Arch Selwyn, representing the New York owners and the new purchasers of the property, stated that the sale was consummated as the only feasible means of forestalling the strike call. Every member of the cast is an Equity actor, compelled to answer the association's call to strike.

The new owners will continue an indefinite stay in Boston.

"I just bought my share blind. I plunged on straight intuition. We have a splendid property and a wonderful show, and I believe we are going to make a great success of it. I am perfectly delighted, too delighted for words."

This was the way Miss Wood felt about her first big business venture in her dressing room after the performance.

Donald Brian, flushed from answering numerous curtain calls, was equally exultant over the purchase of the property.

"We bought the show as a straight proposition, to save it from destruction," said he. "We are all members of the Equity and we would have to strike if called out. The call was coming. Therefore, we plunged."

"Miss Wood, Mr. Eddinger and myself each own a third. We paid $150,000 for the entire producing rights, each staking $50,000. Selwyn & Co.'s name comes off the bill tomorrow and ours go on as the owners and producers."

"Now we cannot be called out. The Equity association has no grievance against us as managers and producing owners because we are ourselves Equity members."

Boston theatrical magnates yesterday opened a court war by the injunction route on the local representatives of the Actors' Equity association.

DO YOU CRAVE SWEETS?

A Very Choice Syrup of Tempting Taste

The liking for sweets is a natural craving. The system requires a certain amount of such food. It acts as fuel. It builds energy. It maintains strength.

Domino Golden Syrup is different from any syrup you ever tasted. So good you can drink it—so wholesome you can eat all you like! And never tire of it.

And of rare "smack" and savor—flavored with just a dash of delicate cane taste—sweet—but not over sweet—and not too "brackish."

A pure, rich, smooth, mellow, full-bodied syrup of a light golden amber tint. Of just the proper consistency—neither too thick nor too thin.

You will like it on bread, cakes, waffles, biscuit. A table delicacy for every meal of every day. Ask your grocer for Domino Golden Syrup. It is made by the American Sugar Refining Company, refiners of Domino Package Sugars—Granulated, Tablet, Powdered, Confectioners, Brown—Adv.

ANYTHING FOR BOOZE

Fox Skins for Which $2500
Had Been Refused Traded
for 6 Bottles of Whiskey

LONDON, July 31. (Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Three silver fox skins for which $2500 has been refused in London were obtained in exchange for six bottles of whiskey, by a British officer who has just returned from northern Russia. Another officer traded a case of champagne for a diamond necklace. Returning soldiers say any possession of a nature may be obtained with intoxicants. The hunter who parted with his fox skins went at once to a room and drank all the whiskey. He was found in a serious condition and required hospital treatment to save his life.

RUMANIANS TO OCCUPY STUHLWEISSENBURG

PARIS, Aug. 12. (By the Associated Press.)—The replies of Premier Brătianu of Rumania to the notes of the supreme council of the peace conference concerning the activity of Rumanian troops in Hungary have reached Paris and were decoded today by the Rumanian delegation.

While the texts were not available, members of the Rumanian delegation said the notes were of a conciliatory nature. It is said that Premier Brătianu has instructed the Rumanian officers at Budapest to hold an immediate conference with the allied generals and to make every effort to avoid complications.

HIGH HONOR FOR LLOYD GEORGE

LONDON, Aug. 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—King George last night invested David Lloyd George, the premier, with the order of merit at Buckingham palace. The awarding of the honor to the premier was announced on August 6.

The delayed list of honors known as the prime minister's honors, conferred to celebrate the king's birthday anniversary, was announced yesterday. The list includes one earldom, two baronies, 15 baronetcies and more than a score of knighthoods.

Sir Edward Cecil Guinness, first Viscount Iveagh, chancellor of Dublin university and head of the most important British brewing firm, was created an earl.

Sir Edward R. Russell, editor of the Liverpool Daily Post since 1869, was made a baron.

Joseph Duveen, senior member of the art firm of Duveen Bros. of London, New York and Paris, and Alfred Waldron Smithers, chairman of the Grand Trunk railway of Canada, were among those granted knighthoods.

The delay in issuing the list, which was expected shortly after the king's birthday, June 3, was expected as due to the premier's lack of time to compile the list because of his duties in connection with the peace conference.

ceau will leave Paris tonight for Venedee to spend a week's vacation. His place as head of the supreme council will be taken by Foreign Minister Pichon.

ALKALI IN SHAMPOOS BAD FOR WASHING HAIR

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, sunny, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Adv.

First Fall Shipment of Crawford Ranges for A. E. O'Heir & Co., Hurd St.

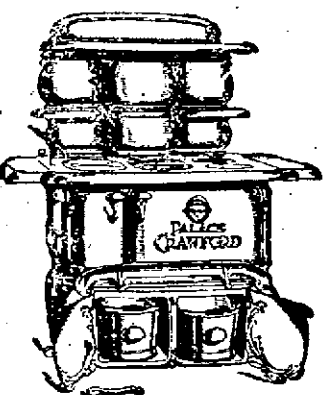

About one-half of our first fall order is represented by cut. We bought more than ever before. First because the demand for Crawford Ranges is increasing all the time and secondly, because by placing a large order early we saved the last advance in prices which makes it possible for us to sell Crawford Ranges from $5 to $12 cheaper than in other cities.

Buy a Crawford Range Now

Don't wait until we have to place our next order at the higher prices. While the stoves and ranges in this shipment last, we will sell at the old prices, which are much lower than the new price list.

A. E. O'Heir & Co.

Buying in large quantity and selling at a small profit has made this store wonderfully popular. Not only in ranges and stoves have we bought in tremendous quantities, but our floors are filled to the utmost with the latest patterns in Furniture, Rugs, etc. Come and see us when you are ready to furnish your home.

STOLE WHISKEY FROM EXPRESS COMPANY

Charged with stealing three pints of whiskey, which he secured by breaking into the office of the Manchester and Concord Express Co. on Middle street, last evening, Matthew P. Brydon pleaded guilty before Judge Enright in police court today, and was held in $500 for a hearing Aug. 20. According to the police, Brydon paid a visit to the office of the company late last evening and after breaking the glass of a rear window, shot the bolt and appropriated a package containing the aforesaid wet goods, the value of which was given at $3 a pint. Brydon didn't linger long after securing the liquor, but later in the night was unfortunate enough to meet Sergt. Bigelow and Patrolman Hessler, who had discovered the break and they persuaded him to come down to police headquarters.

Other Offenders
Mrs. Della Peabody, charged with drunkenness, was sentenced to three months in the house of correction. She appealed and furnished bonds of $200. Charged with threatening his wife, John Uszy, was found guilty, and placed on probation. Provision was made for John to contribute $10 a week for his wife's maintenance via the probation officer, and also keep away from the family domicile.

Arthur H. Richards was found guilty of stealing a bicycle, the property of Jacob Fine. Restitution was made by the young man's father and the case placed on file.

GREAT CROWD GREETED PRINCE OF WALES

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Aug. 13.—The shores of Guidi Vidi lake, two miles from the city, where a few weeks ago crowds gathered to watch the start of the first successful non-stop transatlantic airplane flight, were again thronged with enthusiastic Newfoundlanders today when the Prince of Wales on his official visit to this colony, went to the lake for the annual regatta.

The crowds were in waiting long before the royal guest was due and when he reached the lake every point of vantage was occupied. As he came into view, a wave of cheering swept along the line gathering force until thousands were yelling themselves hoarse.

After a program of events which kept him up until long after midnight yesterday, the prince slept at Government House in the room occupied in 1860 by his grandfather, the late King Edward VII, when as Prince of Wales, he visited Newfoundland. Early this morning the young prince went aboard the British cruiser Dragon for breakfast, and at 10 o'clock made his second official landing in the city. A crowd greeted him, repeating the enthusiastic welcome of yesterday and all along the route to the lake he received an ovation.

In witnessing the regatta, a feature of summer life here for nearly 50 years, the prince was once again following in the footsteps of his grandfather who, like the present prince, was the guest of honor at a similar event, 60 years ago. Particularly appropriate was the presence of the Prince of Wales today for it marked the revival of an event which had been abandoned during the war. The prince and his party occupied a special stand at the lake and greatly enjoyed the spectacle as the entire course was visible. After three races were rowed the royal party drove back to the land place and embarked for St. John, N. B. The ship sailed promptly at noon.

LOWELL MEN IN MANCHESTER
Congressman John Jacob Rogers, John M. O'Donoghue, president of the board of trade; John J. O'Rourke, secretary; George Bowers, chairman of the board's waterways commission, and Arthur T. Safford, chief engineer of the Locks and Canals, went to Manchester, N. H., this morning to attend a hearing being given before Col. Francis R. Shunk of the board of army engineers, relative to the establishment of a system of reservoirs at the headwaters of the Merrimack river.

CUT PRICES OF SURPLUS ARMY FOODSTUFFS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—To meet reductions recently made by retailers, a new scale of prices for surplus foodstuffs was put into effect today by the war department. Roast beef was reduced from $2.13 to $1.90 per six pound can; bacon from 35 to 31 cents per pound and three-pounds cans of beans from 11 to 9 cents. Prices on other items were reduced in proportion.

VACATION HIBLE SCHOOL.
The Worthen street daily vacation bible school, which has been in session during the past two months under the directorship of Rev. Walter E. Woodbury, pastor of the Worthen Street Baptist church, will give a public exhibition of its work tomorrow evening at the church, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. There will be exhibits of toys, baskets, hammocks, and many other articles which the children have made and also there will be a program of songs, marches and drills with wands and dumb bells. Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

In Role of Groceryman

of the sale and every transaction will be on a purely cash basis as the money must be turned over to the city treasury as soon as the goods are sold.

Lowell's prices will be much cheaper than those being quoted at the government food sale in Boston and the other cities where such sales are being held are not letting the food go as cheaply as this city.

There is every indication that the sale will be of the bargain counter variety and that by noon tomorrow there will be little of it left. General favorable comment on the proposition is expressed about the city and the only criticism is that the city didn't purchase more than a carload. If the early sales show that further purchases are advisable an order will be sent to Boston at once.

Those who intend to make purchases will enter the salesroom by the Market street door of the Red Cross quarters. There is no chance of mistaking the place as it is almost directly opposite Shattuck street and a large sign has been erected stating the government food is to be sold there. Upon entering the salesroom, which is on the ground floor, the prospective purchaser will come to the first table where samples of everything being sold will be displayed. The order will be given from these samples and the saleslady will make out your order on a slip of paper with the cost written on both the top and bottom. The customer then tears this apart and takes the check back marked "paid." Then the customer continues around the room until she comes to the worker who took her order, presents her receipted check and receives her goods.

There will be plenty of police protection and customers will be formed in a line. The various procedures of sampling, ordering and receiving the goods will cause the purchaser to walk around in a circle and will leave by the same door where she entered. If the food lasts the sale will continue until 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and if necessary, will re-open at 9 o'clock Friday morning.

List of Volunteers
The Red Cross volunteers who will conduct the sale will be in general charge of Mrs. John K. Whittier and the full list is as follows:
Mrs. Marietta R. Jefferson, Mrs. John L. Russell, Mrs. George H. Run-

els, Mrs. Frederick A. Flather, Mrs. James H. Carmichael, Mrs. Frederick Brennan, Mrs. Walter W. Cleworth, Mrs. Ralph P. Adams, Mrs. Edward B. Emerson, Mrs. Loren Sampson, Mrs. William L. ## WATCH THE SUN'S FOOD ADS

Whenever we have exhorted readers to follow the ads in this paper because it could not fail to help save money in the problem of living, we have not had in mind such a thing as food to be canned and preserved and put away for next winter's use. It is something worth keeping in mind. Canning food when it can be bought cheap and keeping it to eat when snow is on the ground is another way of saving money. It will pay the housewife to watch this paper for ads of the farmers, market men and truck growers who have preservable things to sell. Often times they can be reached by telephone and will deliver at the door. By the same token we suggest to such men having preservable things to sell that this is a good method to get their offerings before the public to advertise them in the official organ for Lowell housewives.

THE SHOPMEN'S STRIKE

It is gratifying to learn that most of the New England Shopmen's unions have apparently voted to return to their jobs.

More and more as time goes on it becomes increasingly apparent that a labor strike must importantly have the support of public opinion in order to succeed. As a general thing, public opinion was not for this last strike of the railroad mechanics. Some persons have been blunt enough to intimate that the shopmen expected their demand for increased pay would be met as promptly as was the case when the operating trainmen demanded the adoption of the Adamson 8 hour law, because it was at that time apparently feared by the federal government that a suspension of railway traffic would immediately ensue. In the absence of proof that this was the shopmen's expectation, it is of course unjust to assert this thing to be so. If it were so, the attitude of the federal government and of public opinion was early seen to be such that the same result would not follow as was the case with the 8 hour law.

It is a credit to the good judgment of the shopmen if final tabulation of the votes shows it was decided to return to work. In the first place they struck against the advice and orders of their national leaders. In the next place they had no business to do something that would embarrass the administration and the government at a very trying time. Thirdly, if it were contemplated to go on strike and remain on strike even to the extent of forcing freight transportation to suspend, it would have been a plan consistent with Russia's crazy and selfish Bolsheviks.

Suspension of freight traffic would mean an embargo on cotton and other raw materials for Lowell's mills and industries and embargo on shipping finished products away. This could have meant nothing less than thousands of Lowell people, many of them just as badly off on this cost of existence as the shopmen, being out of work. The corporations and their workers together would have had to suffer from a condition in which they had absolutely no part or responsibility.

No one will blame the shopmen's union or any other labor organization, to look out for the interests of its members. That is its function. It has a plain duty in that respect. But it also has a duty to the government which gives it protection and a duty to humanity in general. When it turns its back on these two, government and humanity, it cannot go ahead in its plans and aims, for a stronger force will be arrayed against it than it ever suspected existed.

WILD CAT STOCKS

This is a time when the wage earner needs to be warned against investing his money in over capitalized corporations.

All newspaper readers recall that for three months past the newspapers have been constantly publishing advertisements of companies offering to sell stock in their concerns in $100 shares, represented to yield 6, 7 and in some cases, 8 per cent. It looked like a fine investment as compared with the 4 per cent paid by the savings banks or 5 paid by co-operative banks.

Here, however, is where the possibility of loss lies: There is nothing to prevent a business man from buying a new corporation with a capitalization of $100,000 and then selling a minority of its stock for $100 a share and promising the company will pay 7 per cent dividends. The exploiter tells of the great demand for his product, how much the little $50,000 industry has earned for the previous 10 years, the elaborate plans for reorganization and extension of the industry and then, when he invited you to help furnish him with the necessary capital, he wants you to make a $100 bet he is telling the truth, that he is as much of a business man as he says he is, that he is more clever than his competitors and that he can manage the industry so that it will yield a 7 per cent dividend. This is what it amounts to when you purchase a share of his stock. This is the principal reason why the wage earner should be cautious about becoming an investor. When he bought a Liberty bond he invested in the soundest financial institution in the world, the United States government, but most of the other offerings fall far behind such an investment.

PRESS AGENTS

(By the N. E. A.)

We are not complaining—just commenting.

It is the custom these days for very large corporations of national scope to have press agents. Some of these are known as public informants, and others as press representatives, but the functions are one.

This is all right; corporations have a side for the public and it is in the interest of progress that their sides should be known, and we think that their interests are in better hands, through the average press agent, than the average lawyer. A press agent at least sees that the function of a corporation is to serve the public, that the public has some rights, while the lawyer in his overzealous defense may think that the public exists for the corporation.

But the corporation press agent and his press matter is having an effect upon the volume of every editor's mail.

It is becoming a problem that can only be solved by the waste basket. Most of this press matter sent to editors has been prepared by trained newspaper men. Much of it is from exclusive sources of information after great expense in research. Some of it is in the nature of public information, and all of it is more or less informative and interesting.

But to print even that part of this matter which is received, say, in Monday morning's mail, would require all the space in the average newspaper for three days a week.

Even to read and digest it would in itself require an editorial staff beyond the financial reach of even the metropolitan daily.

A small part of the best of this press matter gets attention, but all of it makes up a volume and the worst is in competition with the best in seeking our editor's eye.

The mail that must first demand an editor's attention is that from his readers, for whom the newspaper is published, so there is but one disposition for the mass of corporation press matter—the waste basket.

There is, however, a measurable suggestion for the handling of this press matter seeking an editor's attention.

The employment of press agents by corporations and the volume of their output has now reached a point to justify some control bureau where all of this matter can be gathered, digested, edited and condensed and put up to the editors and others in tabloid form, and in the way of, say, a weekly publication.

There is also a field for a publication to digest bulletins issued by the government and various states, together with highly briefed proposed and enacted legislation, under certain classifications of subjects.

Literature of all classes has so increased in volume, even within the last decade, that the next constructive step in the art of literature is the art of condensation—saving the time and effort of both the editor and the general reader.

An interesting sidelight on the financial possibilities of the jitney business was offered at superior court, Providence, Monday of this week, when Mrs. Ethel Malarese, seeking to make her husband support her and her children, testified Malarese bought a second hand flivver and used it as a jitney. On the basis of fares collected, which no doubt varied, she said the flivver had netted her husband an average of $90 a week. Even with the glowing tales of the chances now offered back in Italy, it is improbable Malarese could exploit his jitney so successfully in that sunny clime.

It seems that Gov. Coolidge has had his attention called to the fact that one of the men he has nominated to have a place on the street railways commission—a commission which is to investigate trolley conditions in Massachusetts—was formerly receiver for the Bay State and as such received a fee of over $70,000. It is understood that this commission's members are not to be paid for their services and the wonder is that this $70,000 chap is willing to now give the state some gratuitous service.

Of course we stay-at-homes enjoy all kinds of vacation and fishing stories and one of the best fishing stories in the day's gist for yesterday came from Portland. Three fishermen fishing off Cape Elizabeth by means of a harpoon made of a stick and an old stove poker, succeeded in taking a 250 pound swordfish aboard their boat and going to Portland, sold it for $80. Truly the sea holds great treasures if you will only be ingenious and persevering about trying for them.

The cost of living increased 71 per cent between July, 1914, and July, 1919. If your pay hasn't been increased 71 per cent you can see how far behind you fall. And if the average employer gave a 71 per cent raise to the workers who have the necessities we have to have, no wonder the cost of existence increased by leaps and bounds.

Things can't be so bad in Boston as might be the case. Edward P. McGrady, in charge of the federal employment office, Canal street, says he has 1500 jobs open for men and women and all presumably paying a living wage. That is quite a number of jobs for one office to have.

It is said that a fireproof aeroplane capable of doing 100 miles an hour is being exhibited enthusiastically in Berlin at the present time. We would consider a fireproof aeroplane safe only in a warproof nation.

SEEN AND HEARD

Be on hand early with your basket and cash at the Red Cross market, Market street, Thursday morning!

Three sugar boats arrived in Boston last week but the raw sugar has to be refined a week at Revere. Who'd suppose Revere could refine anything?

Old Mother Hubbard's dog would apparently fare ill if he went to the Lowell water department's cupboard although Charlie Morse apparently is to do the best he can.

A Salvation Army lassie told us that when she was sent to Europe the only orders given her were, "Be sure and use horse sense."

Two qualities that will carry you through anything, any time and anywhere.

We admire sincerity even in those with whom we differ most. We take our hats off to the people who believe absolutely in the things they are doing. And, no quality is so quickly discovered as insincerity.

Horse sense is little more than letting the other fellow hold the reins while you do the work. He's happy because he thinks he's running things and you're happy because you are getting the thing done.

In other words, horse sense is not worrying about the credit for any accomplishment. It is looking only for results.—N.E.A.

Only a Woman

"When does the next train for Fort Wayne leave here?" inquired the woman at the railway station.

"You'll have to wait five hours madam."

"I don't think so." "Perhaps you know better than I do madam."

"Yes, my man, and perhaps you know better than I do whether I am going to travel by that train myself or whether I am merely making the inquiry on behalf of a cousin of mine who has been spending the week-end with me and who is at this moment packing her things so she could not inquire herself, but sent me to do it for her in order to save her the trouble. Perhaps you think it's your business to stand there and instruct people about things they know as well as you do. And maybe you'll give a civil answer next time a respectable widow asks you a question instead of trying to show off what you know."

"Yes, madam"—Boston Globe.

The Gist of Life

To be up and doing. O Unfeeling and unashamed to go in all the aprons and the press about my human business! My undivided heart I hear Whimper courage in my ear. With voiceless calls, the ancient earth Summons me to a daily birth. Thou, O my love, ye, O my friends—The gist of life, the end of ends—To laugh, to love, to live, to die. To call me by the cat and eye! —ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

The Sun published a very interesting story on Tuesday, August 5, descriptive of the evolution of the street car to the present time and since the publication of the story we have heard more or less about it, verbally and otherwise. Attached to, and made part of the story, was the program of, more properly speaking, time-table of an event 'way back in 1855. The letters M. L. appeared at the top of the little time-table card and we did not know at the time what the letters stood for. It was stated in the story that the writer did not know what the letters M. L. stood for but said The Sun would like to hear from somebody whose memory would carry them back to 1855 days. The first one to be heard from was our friend Samuel Scott and he informed us that the letters M. L. stood for Martin Luther. The Martin Luther club was then in its prime, numbering in its membership the late Governor Greenhalge and other well known men. In those days, Mr. Scott informs us, the Martin Luther met at the postoffice, then located in Merrimack square, at 1.45 o'clock and went from there to the Vesper boat house where they took a boat at 2 o'clock for their grounds in Tyngsboro. Mr. Scott said that the outing in question was the second held by the Martin Luther club, "and, take it from me," said Samuel, "it was something out."

In the story of early street car days reference was also made to a horse known as "Chestnut." He was known as a fox and as light-footed as a prairie chicken. When anything touched his heels he usually left the imprint of his shoe marks in the car road. John B. Crowley, former sergeant in the police department and now on the retired list because of disability, read the story and he remembered "Chestnut" very well. "But the horse that attracted most attention," said Mr. Crowley, "was a wise old owl called 'Murphy' and he certainly was a wonder. He was used as a tow horse. He was stationed at the corner of Cabot and Merrimack streets and his duty was to help the other horses up the hill with their load. This hill from Merrimack street to Salem street. The strange thing about it was that the car it was his duty to assist was the only one he paid any attention to, and the only men he paid any attention to were the driver and conductor of that car. The Pawtucketville car would go by, but he paid no attention to it. When his own car was coming he would prick up his ears, and when the driver or conductor called to him he would be Johnny-on-the-spot. The kids all knew him and when they would holler 'Hello Murphy' the old horse would wiggle his ears. He was a great favorite in the neighborhood. Reading the story in The Sun reminded me of a whole lot of things and incidents that had faded from my memory and it's pleasant to recall old times, old things and old friends."

"It might be well for the water department to close up the little park which extends along Gardner avenue and Gershom avenue in Pawtucketville," said a resident of the district the other day, "for the only purpose it serves at present is to accommodate a crowd of young boys, who make it their meeting place for the playing of the unlawful game of 'crabs'."

The land was opened as a public park a year ago by former Commissioner Brown, who was at the head of the water department, at the request of numerous residents of Pawtucketville and settlers were placed there for the benefit of women and children and others who wished to enjoy fresh air. It seems, however, that a certain group of young men of the district have made it their stopping place and in defiance of the police gather there every evening and "roll the bones." Now with such conditions existing women and children keep away from the park with the result that the gang of youthful crabsnotters have it all to themselves. The residents of the district feel that either the police should clean out the park or the water department should close it.

I think some of our readers will recall an item in this col. printed a number of weeks ago in which it was told of the considerable damage which had been done to a young apple orchard in Groton by the depredations of "crabs."

Go to your druggist and get an original bottle of Miro Pile Remedy, the discovery of a clever Ohio chemist, that taken internally, passes unchanged through the stomach and intestines, and thus reaches the source of the trouble where, by its soothing, healing antiseptic action, it first allays and then by direct contact with the ulcers and piles causes them to heal and disappear forever.

It's positively marvelous how speedily it acts. Blessed relief often comes in two or three days, even in cases that have resisted all previously known treatments really wonderful results have been accomplished. It is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded.

Go to read what Mr. F. M. Smith of 2313 Broadway, Lorain, Ohio, says: "I gladly recommend Miro Pile Remedy for Piles. There is no equal to it. I suffered for 15 years and tried everything that was recommended. I doctored for years and was a constant sufferer with bleeding piles. I took two bottles of Miro and was entirely cured. Any sufferer using it will never regret it."

All pharmacists dispense Miro or can get it for you on short notice. Surely it is worth the little trouble to obtain to be rid of piles forever.

IMPORTANT—What is known as itching piles are not piles in the true sense of the word, although this condition may accompany a true case of piles. For this condition Miro Pile Ointment has been prepared as in such cases it is not necessary to take the internal remedy. ## LEMON JUICE

TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quart of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.—Adv.

It was noted at the time that although there is every reason and demand for good crops of apples being encouraged, the law nevertheless gives the deer in Massachusetts full protection and even if you saw deer browsing on your young apple trees, you could beat them off by shouting but there would be a heavy penalty if you shot one. Do you know what the successful expedient was that the Groton farmer used to protect his orchard after he had discovered what animal was ruining it? He has a friend who is a printer on The Sun and by him we are told that the Groton man and he procured narrow strips of discarded white cloth, about three or four feet long and making a knot in one end of the strip, tied the other end to the trees—about four or five strips to a tree, and let the strips hang down towards the ground. It got the goat of the deer. It worked out that the deer coming to the orchard either in the night or early morning, their favorite time, would see the spectral looking strips hanging from the trees and the sight of them, together with the slight swaying, was such that they did not dare to go and nibble any more apple tree foliage.

5 CENT FARE FOR SHORT HAULS IN BOSTON

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—Boston is soon to experience a revival of five-cent fares. It is to be a very small revival, hardly noticeable, perhaps, when compared to the rest of the Elevated system which will continue to operate under the 10-cent fare, but it is the first move toward a reduction of the very high fares under which the people of the greater city are staggering today.

The line will be run from the North station to the corner of Franklin and Washington streets, via Portland, Merrimac and Washington streets, returning via Franklin, Federal, Congress, State, Devonshire, Washington and Cahal streets. The service is to be operated on a five-minute headway from 7 o'clock a. m. to 7 o'clock p. m. on week days only. And the fare is to be five cents, with no transfer privileges. Besides, the cars are to be specially marked.

The new line will be inaugurated within a few weeks. In determining upon the experiment the trustees of the Elevated are partially adopting the suggestions of Peter Will, the Cleveland expert and advocate of "cheap short hauls," who in an exhaustive report has presented what he believes is the proper remedy for the financially ill Elevated system.

PROVIDES WAGE INCREASE FOR P. O. EMPLOYEES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Temporary wage increases for post office employees to be paid during the current fiscal year, are proposed in a bill introduced yesterday by Representative Maryland, with proposals to give all workers drawing $1200 a year or less an increase of 40 per cent; workers drawing $1200 to $1500 a 31 per cent and those receiving from $1500 to $1800, 21 per cent additional.

GREEKS APPRECIATE LODGE'S ATTITUDE

The following telegram of appreciation has been sent to Senator Henry Cabot Lodge by the members of the local Greek community for his attitude on the Thracian question: Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge, Senator from Massachusetts, Washington, D. C. Dear Sir: The Greek community of Lowell cannot allow the opportunity to pass to express to you their deep appreciation for your interest in the mother country, Greece, and the justice of her cause in Thrace and elsewhere. We want all Americans to know, as you already know, that it is simple justice which we seek. We are not asking for the territory of another nation; we are asking for only portions of territory which belong to Greece and which are Greek in preponderance of population. Greece has always looked to America to obtain for her justice and she now presents a clear case to the world. She has fought for centuries for the freedom of her race and she will continue to fight it in the great settlement slavery is still decided for the thousands in Thrace. We deem it our present duty to express to you, our Massachusetts senator, the deep gratitude that is in our hearts and to tell you that we shall never forget what you have done in the cause of justice and right. Very gratefully yours, CHRISTOS BIOGKOS, President of the Community. DEMETRIOS S. ATHANASOULAS, Secretary of the Community.

JOHNNY (YOUNG) AVILLA

LOCAL BOXERS BUSY

Great Crop of Mitt Artists
Here—Avilla and Quinn
Have Fine Records

Boxing is now enjoying one of the greatest seasons in the history of the game and the sport is due for one of the best winters on record. Many classy manipulators of the mitts have returned to their homes after assisting in the great war and as a result about every city, town and village can boast of one or more expert glove wielders.

War Helped Boxing

The war did much for boxing and boxing did much toward winning the war. At every camp and training station boxing played an important part in the training and entertainment of the men. Bouts were staged on hand and on many of the battlefields at sea and the participants and spectators found great enjoyment in the sport. The government is now advocating and endorsing the "manly art of self defense," and much toward making the game popular and with the return of peace, many of the boys who were developed during the war have decided to continue at the game.

Lowell Well Represented

Lowell has its quota of successful boxers and the crop is bound to grow as the approaching season points to one of the most active and most prosperous in years. Two clubs have chapters to conduct bouts here while two are running in Lawrence and three in Boston. Lynn, Marlboro, and many other Massachusetts cities are also conducting weekly matches.

"Tip" Quinn Makes Good

"Tip" Quinn, who has just returned home after serving three years in the United States navy, appeared at the open air bouts last Saturday and added another victim to his list. While in the service he engaged in 22 contests and won all but three. He tips the beam at 125 pounds and stands ready to meet any boy in this section at his weight. He's a fast boxer, hits well with both hands, and can take it if obliged to. In his last here last week he sloped Jim Demas in three rounds, showing much class during the brief period that Demas was before him. He intends to continue training and is ready to take on all comers.

Young Avilla a Comer

Of all the boxers developed here in recent years, few have gone on the ladder as fast as Johnnie (Young) Avilla, the Lisbon club lightweight. Last Saturday he won his tenth consecutive bout, and his eighth victory via the K.O. route. He has been at the game but a short time, and while he has tackled several men of long experience, he has yet to lose a single round. Probably his most successful bout was that with Young Nearey of Centralville, whom he met here several months ago. The bout was a double knockout, but as Avilla was the first to get to his feet, after going down he was awarded the victory. The fight was a real show under the efficient management of Leo Jones, and with careful handling ought to prove a great battle. Manager Jones says Avilla will meet any boy in the country at 135 pounds and he declares that he has received many fine offers from several of the New England boxing clubs, and that he would like nothing better, however, than another Avilla-Nearey bout.

Johnny Moran There

Johnny Moran, a local boy, who while a member of the navy won the lightweight championship of the fleet, has shown considerable class in the few bouts he has had since donning the "cits." He set up a wonderful record in the navy, and while he met all comers, he never was forced to take the count. In fact he never experienced the sensation of "kissing the canvas." He is a clean cut young man and being under the management of the energetic and clever Jackie Williams ought to "do his" this winter.

Medicine Club Has Boxer

Jim Demas, the Holliston club champ, while defeated by Tip Quinn last week, showed enough class to demand further attention. Quinn had a real reach on Demas, and he also has been at the game for a longer period. Demas, however, was game and worked every minute he ought to make good against boys of his weight.

Buddy Thomas Fast

who is bound to make all boys of his weight hustle. He is a big, strong, yet fast performer. He can hit hard with either hand and is about as cool a worker as one would care to see. He will be heard from before the winter ends.

Nearey Good Hitter

Young Nearey, whose fame spread after his great bout with Avilla, demonstrated his hitting abilities in that memorable contest. He is a rugged boy and with careful training and handling could defeat many of the alleged star lightweights. He has not appeared in a bout since the battle with Avilla, but any time he's ready to again don the mitts he will experience no difficulty in getting matches.

Boyle to Come Back

Phinney Boyle, who has had a rather erratic career within the roped arena, expects to get back in the game this winter. When right Boyle is a very classy and satisfactory performer. He announces that he will work hard to regain his lost prestige.

Mellins Not Through

Frank Mellins, who up until he met Johnny Moran, was going like a hot on fire, should not be discouraged by that defeat. He put up a game battle, the kind the fans like, and his work made a big hit with all. He has only recently recovered from an injury when he took that bout and his past performances entitle him to further consideration. Nothing is one of the hardest hitters of his weight in this section and his many friends hope that he will again return to the game.

Conley Popular

Happy Conley, a young, ambitious and very popular dispenser of haymakers, is another lad who is bound to be kept busy this season. While not as clever as many boys he has appeared against his hitting brought him many victories. He is a fine little worker and can always be depended upon to give the best that is in him.

To Attempt "Come Back"

Joe (Gardner) Brooks has gone down to Diamond Hill, Rhode Island, where his Uncle Joe Thomas, is conducting a boxing gym. Brooks is a successful come back. He has not done much boxing for the past several years, but a fastening offer to meet one of the leading bantams of Rhode Island has induced him to return to the game. He will train hard and feels confident that he will regain his old time form.

Other Notables

Tommy Doyle and Frankie Walsh are a pair who did considerable satisfactory work last spring, but of late neither has done the ring logs. Both have a number of good bouts left and would not be surprising to again see them dancing around the squared circle. George Brooks, too, should get back into contention, for he has the goods and the make any boy of his weight step lively in a six or eight round number. Kid Diamond, will soon shine as a star battler according to his manager. He has the earmarks of a comer.

Young Christo, who is just breaking in, is said to look like a future champion. He is training all the while and will soon make his professional debut. Tommy Fall, a fast and exceptionally clever sparrer, has not yet left the ranks of the amateurs, but when he does finally step into the percentage class, he will get plenty of work.

There are many other local boys who are training and from a few indications everything points to the biggest year in the history of the padded mitt artists.

VALGER WINS FROM CHARLIE PARKER

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—Benny Valger, "the French Flash," won the decision over Charlie Parker of the South End in their 12-round bout in Mechanics building last night. About 4000 fans saw the contest, which was one full of action.

Valger proved too clever for Parker, for he kept the latter on his heels all the time. Parker was a stiff argument and gained the honors in four of the rounds. Sam Bell and Young Quill went 8 rounds to a draw. Bert Jones defeated MacMurphy in 5 rounds and Kid Lee stopped Flash Rogers in six.

CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Managers Reynolds and Coughlin of the B. M. and Knights of Columbus teams respectively expect to complete arrangements at a meeting tonight for a three-game championship series at Spaulding park on Saturday. The Knights have won their series with the St. Peter's club, while the B. M. and C.M.C. teams split even with one more game to be played later in the season. The final details relative to the size of the purse, referee, etc., will be discussed tonight.

REDS AND GIANTS IN "CROOSHUL" SERIES

The greatest baseball battle of the season in either of the big leagues is at hand. The Cincinnati Reds are invading the Polo grounds, New York, to fight a duel to the finish with the New York Giants. The battle will last three days and during that time, if the rain lays off, there will be six games played. It is all on account of the weather—the Reds being driven out by the rain on their previous endeavors. The Reds are at the top of their form. The Giants are reinforced with two good pitchers—Phil Douglass, obtained from the Cubs, and Art Nehf from the Braves. The Reds trimmed the Giants at Cincinnati two out of three and went into first place. In the three games they scored 12 runs to the Giants' six. The Giants continued their losing at St. Louis while the Reds kept on winning. On paper the Giants look best, but in actual performances they are slightly shaded by Pat Moran's team. Fans have always hesitated to pick the Reds—seems luck always has been against them, but the great race made by Cincinnati this season has awakened the fans and critics everywhere. They have confidence in the Reds and are boldly picking them to win the pennant following the climb into first place in the series at Cincinnati. There will be three great crowds out to see the teams fight it out and the advantage of playing on their own grounds and with their own fans backing them will be with the Giants and yet the Reds fight as hard on the road as they do at home. The National league race likely will be decided in New York this week.—Fred Turbyville, N.E.A.

RED-GIANT NOTES

Cincinnati fans are so sure the Reds will win the pennant the newspapers there are getting running accounts of the game to the White Sox play. They want to know how their prospective world's series rivals are doing.

You can look through the National league flag winners from 1871 on, but you'll never see the name of Cincinnati in the list. Every dog has his day and maybe 1919 will be a dog day for Cincinnati.

The Reds won a lot of followers throughout the National league by their remarkable performance in July. They lost only six games in the month. They won 22 games. The Giants won 20 out of 27 games during the month but the beginning of August was the beginning of "fall" for the Giants.

So anxious is the Red club to win the pennant that Garry Herrmann is unloading the purse-strings and is in the market for talent. He bought Outfielder Sec from Rochester for $10,000 and a ball player. The Reds needed an outfielder badly. Pitcher Bressler has been playing the outfield most of the season. Sherry Magee is not in good shape.

Cincinnati is so sure the Reds will cop one of the thoroughfares has been named "Moran avenue." After Pat, of course.

Gov. Cox says if the Reds win the pennant he certainly will be present and root for the Ohio entry in the world's series.

Cincinnati fans are pulling for Cleveland to win in the American so they can have a better chance of winning the National league this year. Gavy says the Giants have the reserve power.

AUSTRALIANS DEFEAT AMERICAN PLAYERS

NEWTON, Aug. 13.—Gerald L. Patterson and Norman E. Brooks, one of the visiting Australian teams, came through victorious yesterday in the second round of the United States national lawn tennis doubles championship tournament on the courts of the Longwood Cricket club. The other team, composed of R. V. Thomas and Kenneth Lyett, was eliminated by an American team.

Patterson and Brooks defeated R. Norris Williams, 2nd, and Watson M. Washburn, holders of the New England sectional title, in straight sets, 6-2, 6-3, 5-6, in a match that was easily the feature of the day's play.

Thomas and Lyett lost to the formidable New York team, Edward Vashell and Fred B. Alexander, holders of the tri-state sectional title. The score was 3-6, 6-2, 6-0, 2-6, 6-3.

The Los Angeles pair, Maurice E. McLoughlin and Thomas C. Bundy, Pacific coast champions, had an easy time in disposing of C. B. Doyle of Washington and F. H. Harris of Drabtown, Va. holders of the middle Atlantic states sectional title, the score being 6-3, 6-3, 6-2. So certain was the outcome that comparatively few spectators were attracted even by the chance to see McLoughlin, the California "comet," in action.

The fourth match scheduled was defaulted by the Dallas, Tex., team of Louis Thalhimer and Leven Jester, holders of the southwestern title, to the San Franciscoans, William M. Johnston and C. J. Griffin, the northwestern champions.

ALLEGED AUTOMOBILE THIEVES ARRAIGNED

The four alleged members of the gang of auto and accessory thieves which has been operating around Boston for the past month, and who were arrested in a camp on Bridal road, Billerica Sunday night by Cambridge and Billerica police were arraigned in Cambridge police court yesterday and held in bonds ranging from $300 to $5000 for further hearing.

Samuel Breck of Somerville, was held in $5000 on the charge of stealing three automobiles; Ernest Blevins, Cambridge, was held in a like amount charged with stealing two autos; and Leo Kellher, also of Cambridge, was held in $1000 for the larceny of one. The fourth member of the quartet, Miss Evelyn M. Kelley, Cambridge, was held in $300, charged with stealing one machine.

Two women and a man said to belong to the band, who were arrested in a cottage in South Billerica last week on charges of receiving stolen property, mostly out of tires and accessories, and held in $3500 each in Lowell police court last Thursday, will come before Judge Enright for hearing tomorrow.

THE SPINDLE CITY MOTORCYCLE CLUB

The members of the Spindle City Motorcycle club, who have seen service either in the army or navy, were tendered a welcome home reception at the well appointed quarters of the club on the Concord river Sunday. An informal reception was held, followed by a dinner and an entertaining program, the latter consisting of the following numbers:

Piano selections by Lester Heabeth, Miss Hilda Carlson and Mrs. Walter White; bugle calls by Daniel Naylor, who also contributed a few comic and sentimental recitations; cornet solo, Cy R. Merrill; songs, Joseph Salome and Arthur Claire, accompanied by Miss Hilda Carlson and Lester Heabeth; Bob Whalen also entertained with songs, accompanied by Thomas Jones; Thomas Knight gave an exhibition sleight of hand.

The honor roll of the Spindle City club is as follows: J. Blackstock, second aerial regiment; A. D. Gustafson, Battery F, 102nd Regiment; J. Hogan, 303rd Machine Gun Battalion; C. Lane, 58th Balloon Company; J. Mowatt, boatswain's mate; second class; A. McEntee, Canadian service signal corps; A. Cleghorn, S.C.I.C.; T. Cleghorn, First Machine Gun school; D. Maylor, Sixth Cavalry; C. Merrill, A.M.T.S.

MAY GET ARMY TANK AND AIRPLANE

As features of the welcome home parade for French American service men on Labor day, N. A. ### COMMUNITY SING

A chorus of girls of the Community Singing league, directed by Louis Carpenter, led several hundred people in an enthusiastic sing on the North common last evening. As there is a large Greek colony in that neighborhood, familiar tunes of Greece predominated and a score of Greek young women from the International Institute formed a part of the chorus. Four pieces from the United States Cartridge Co. band furnished the music for the program.

LOWELL MAN AT LAWRENCE HOSPITAL

Mrs. John Coffey, of 103 Hale street, this city, last evening received word that her husband, employed as a stereotypist on the Lawrence Sun-American, had been taken to a Lawrence hospital, ostensibly as a result of being struck by an automobile. This, however, is denied by the police of Methuen, who say the Lowell man was taken sick on an electric car and later taken to the hospital. Mrs. Coffey believes her husband finished his day's work yesterday and was on his way home when he was either taken ill or struck by a passing vehicle of some sort and she inclines toward the latter belief because of the fact that he is seriously handicapped by deafness.

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Equipment were the dominant issues at the stock and active opening today. Baldwin Locomotive, yesterday's feature, secured an initial advance of a point on the sale of 1000 shares and soon doubled its gain. Steel, tobacco and food shares were one to two points over yesterday's final quotations. Leaders comprising Bethlehem and Crucible, American Tobacco products and Wilson Packing, oil and motors were firm and U. S. Rubber responded to 114 new stock issues with a gain of 1 1/2 points.

Further upward progress was made during the morning, the advance embracing many issues not included in the early movement. Among these were the motor subsidiaries and steel. Crucible extending its rise to 6 1/2 points, although U. S. Steel gained only a point. Equipment shares strengthened by a 1 1/2 point gain in New York Airbrake and the inquiry for oil broadened, tobacco, leather and paper issues also reflecting a better inquiry. American Cars won a point decline, increased heaviness of American Telephone and neglect of standard rails were the negative features. Gains in some equities, motors and oil being offset by recessions in others. The closing was irregular. Oil also extended their gains.

Coroner Declares Engineer and Instructor, Who Lost Lives, Were Asleep in Cab

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Aug. 13.—Henry Brickley, 39, of New London, and Charles F. Rust, of New Haven, engineer and instructor respectively are held responsible for the freight wreck at Greenwich on the morning of July 31, in which both of them lost their lives, by Coroner Phelan. He declares that in his opinion both the engineer and the instructor were asleep in their cab.

CONFIDENCE IN JAPAN

Prime Minister of New Zealand, Back From Peace Conference

HONOLULU, July 25.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Confidence in the good faith of Japan as regards her promises concerning the future of the Shantung peninsula, was expressed here by W. F. Massey, prime minister of New Zealand, who visited Honolulu on his way home from the peace conference, accompanied by Sir Joseph Ward, minister of finance of New Zealand.

Both declared their belief that the League of Nations would prove a success.

CLOTHING MANUFACTURERS TO DISCUSS LABOR

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—A conference to which every clothing manufacturer in the city is invited, will convene late today to discuss the labor situation.

The manufacturers complain that continuous demands for wage increases despite a wage scale agreed to by manufacturers and the union, and the shifting of labor from one factory to another, are running up costs to prohibitive heights and decreasing production. The union asserts that much of the trouble has been caused by manufacturers bidding against one another for the services of labor.

14,000 PAINTERS STRIKE IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Approximately 14,000 painters, decorators and paper-hangers went on strike today, bringing to a standstill renovation of hundreds of apartments being prepared for October leasing.

The strikers demand a five day week of 40 hours, with a wage of $1 an hour. They have been receiving $6 a day for a 40-hour week.

McMANUS' PICNIC

The McManus' picnic for the poor children will take place Wednesday, August 20. Cars will leave the square at 9 o'clock. The picnic is to be held at Spaulding park. The Spaulding City band will furnish the music for the children. Mr. Harvey, the caterer, has charge of the luncheon, and will furnish sandwiches, lemonade and pies. At the grounds a long list of sports will be carried out and suitable prizes will be awarded the victors. Four policemen and as many firemen will run off the sporting events. It is largely through the generosity of the local business men and clergymen that this event is conducted. And Mr. McManus wishes to thank them one and all, who have for the past nineteen years helped to make this a success. The prizes were generously contributed by the following: Mr. Lytle, Mr. Freeman, Mr. Eillon, Mr. Howe, Mr. Corbett, Empire Clothing Co., and John Henry Collins.

DISCOLORED OR SPOTTED SKIN EASILY PEELED OFF

The freckling, discoloring or roughening to which most skins are subject at this season, may readily be gotten rid of. Ordinary mercurized wax spread lightly over the face before retiring and removed in the morning with soap and water, completely peels off the discolored skin. You need not get more than an ounce of the wax from your druggist.

There's no more effective way of banishing tan, freckles, spots, catarrh or other cutaneous defects. Minute, almost invisible, particles come off each day, so the process itself doesn't even temporarily mar the complexion, and you soon acquire a brand new, spotless, girlishly beautiful face.—Adv.

HAVERHILL WOMAN A VICTIM

Mrs. Emma Deandelin of 1 Bartlett court, Haverhill, Mass., was a victim of ill health for 15 years before she found GOLDINE. Her system was run down as a result of overwork. She suffered from frequent headaches, was very nervous. She tried GOLDINE and now she says:

"I feel stronger and quite a lot better. Before taking the remedy, I had long spells of dull aching. My catarrh is better, my back more better and I'm not so nervous. I used to have to quit work every month, my limbs would get weak and I had to leave off that clothes. I am greatly improved now."

GARDEN FROCK OF MIDSUMMER

BY BETTY BROWN
For the maiden who longs to look simply delectable in "his" eyes—and the eyes of the world, there is no better recipe for a frock than this one sketched for Fashion Art. It is created of fresh pink chiffon over pink silk, and combined with an artful arrangement of creamy flit lace and French blue picot-edged ribbon grille. The costume is completed by a wide-brimmed horsehair hat in orchid shades and sheltered by a rose pink parasol.

N. H. SHOE WORKERS HELP LOWELL STRIKERS

A committee consisting of members of the Allied Shoe Workers' union, who have been on strike in this city for the past three weeks, went to Manchester, N. H., last evening in an endeavor to raise funds for the benefit of the Lowell strikers, and it was stated this morning that New Hampshire shoe workers were very generous in their donations.

The strikers held a meeting in their hall in Middle street this morning and transacted routine business. In the course of the meeting it was brought out that one of the police officers on duty at the plant of the Federal Shoe company, had interfered with the picketers and it was voted to make charges against the officer to the mayor. It was also announced that some of the employees of the L. H. Spaulding Co., had received letters from the firm to the effect that the plant will re-open Thursday morning and that a conference between employees and employers will be held at the plant of the company this afternoon.

DEATHS IN BATTLE OF A. E. F. ARE 49,498

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Final casualty reports from the central records office of the American Expeditionary forces in France, made public here today, gave the total battle deaths as 49,498, total wounded 205,600 and prisoners 4,480. "Only slight revisions" will be made in this report, it was announced.

Recent corrections have reduced the missing to only 127 names, as compared with 204,000 for France and 121,000 for England. To July 1 the army had reported 149,443 cases of disabled soldiers to the war risk insurance bureau. It was estimated the final total would be close to 200,000.

TURKISH LEADER FLEES TO ASIA MINOR

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 13.—Halil Pasha, former minister of marine and uncle of Enver Pasha, former minister of war, has escaped to Asia Minor with Kirtchick Talat, another leader of the committee of union and progress. It is believed he will join Mustapha Kiamli Pasha in Erzerum.

The Turkish cabinet recently ordered the arrest of Mustapha Kiamli, Halil Pasha and Reuf Bey, on charge of convoking a separatist congress and organizing armed bands in the Smyrna and Erzerum districts.

WOULD REDUCE PRICES ROBBER SHOTS HIMSELF

Sen. McKellar Urges Federal Regulation of Cold Storage of Food

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Federal regulation of cold storage of food was urged in the senate today by Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, as a certain means of reducing the high cost of living and as the only remedy for "the most outrageous piece of profiteering that can be imagined."

Speaking in support of his bill, first introduced in 1913 and now as reintroduced before the senate commerce committee considering recommendations of the president, he said if the bill had been passed in 1913, some of the present conditions would not exist.

Used to Control Prices
"The cold storage system is used by the packers," he said, "for the purpose of controlling prices. As used by the packers, it preserves in seasons of plenty and permits them to withhold such large quantities of foodstuffs from the market as to make a season of scarcity at any time they see fit and thus they increase the price to the consuming public."

His bill would limit the time food could be held in cold storage. He cited recent statistics of the federal trade commission of food showing vast increases over the amounts stored last year. He compared retail prices, secured from the manager of the senate restaurant, showing large increases in price, despite the increased supplies in storage.

66 2-3 Per Cent. Profit

"Some middleman," he said, "is making 66 2-3 per cent. profit on eggs alone. The only possible way in which these prices can be manipulated is through the medium of the cold storage. Put a limit on the time in which these goods can be held and the packers will be compelled to sell."

"Eggs are in the hands of the most giant monopoly there is in the world. The price the packers pay and the price at which they are sold is out of all proportion and they never will come down until eggs are stamped and regulated."

The senator said meat and poultry often were held too long in storage. Chickens, he asserted, were stored without removal of their heads and entrails, conducing to quick putrefaction after they were taken from storage.

STORM WARNINGS

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The weather bureau today gave warning of a northeast storm from Delaware Breakwater to Boston. Disturbances on the Virginia coast, increasing in intensity, will move northward and cause strong northeast winds this afternoon and tonight.

CARMEN GET WAGE INCREASE

War Labor Board Awards 12
P. C. Raise to Bay State
Employees

Company Protested—Taft
Replies for Board—Other
Increases

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The war labor board at its final session here yesterday granted an increase of 12 per cent. in wages to employees of 10 traction companies centering in Boston, Pittsburg and Cleveland.

Among the companies whose employees were granted increases were the Bay State Railway Co., the Eastern Massachusetts Railway (the Bay State). The employees ask a minimum wage of 50 cents an hour and a maximum of 60 cents. Their present rate of pay is 41 to 45 cents an hour.

Homor Loring, chairman of the trustees, appeared in opposition to the men's demands. He claimed that the financial condition of the company would not permit the increase, but he was interrupted by William Taft, joint chairman of the board, who said: "This board has said so often that the question of the wages of men is not to be determined by the financial condition of the company."

Mr. Loring said that in spite of an increase of 100 per cent. in fares the increase in revenue had been only 14 per cent.

The board refused to abrogate a previous decision making a 41-hour week in the Patterson, N. J., silk mills effective Oct. 1. A company representing the employees of more than 500 silk mills in Patterson requested that the 41-hour week be made effective immediately, but the board decided that the award would stand unless parties to the present dispute should agree otherwise in the meantime.

Two awards were made personally by Chairman Taft in cases where the members of the board had been unable to agree and had voted to allow Mr. Taft to act as sole referee.

When the board finally adjourned only one case was pending, a claim by the employees of the Bethlehem Steel mills for back pay amounting to $1,500,000. This case is being adjusted by an administrator for the board.

In a statement issued after the final adjournment it was stated that in the 18 months of the board's existence it had adjusted more than 1200 labor disputes and had succeeded in preventing any serious labor trouble or interference with war material during the war. The cost of the upkeep and operations of the board was placed at approximately $750,000, which was paid out of President Wilson's war emergency fund. The appropriation was exhausted on June 30 and no request was made to congress for further funds, so that since that time the members of the board and their staff have served without compensation.

Carmen Disappointed
BOSTON, Aug. 13.—Day State railway carmen were disappointed and bitterly disappointed last night when they learned that the war labor board, sitting in New York yesterday, had awarded them a 12 per cent increase in wages. The increase will give the uniformed employees a maximum of 50 4-10 cents an hour in contrast to the 60 cents an hour recently granted the Boston Elevated carmen after a four-day strike.

The Bay State men asked for 73 1/2 cents an hour, the same wage asked for by the Elevated men, and they confidently expected that the war labor board would give them a wage equal or nearly equal to the wage of the Elevated men.

The rank and file of the Bay State men manifested much displeasure at the award of the board and some of them held to the hope that the board had granted an increase of 12 cents an hour instead of a 12 per cent increase, as reported in press despatches. They predicted that there would be much protest over the award and intimated that it might precipitate a strike or at least an effort to reopen the case before the war labor board.

The men asserted that there would be meetings of the various locals on the Bay State to take action on the question, and a meeting occurred early this morning at Chelsea.

It was intimated from official sources among the Bay State officials that they feared the award would be very unsatisfactory to the men. They declined to be quoted on the matter, however. Some suggested that the award might be 12 cents an hour increase, instead of 12 per cent, which would give the men a maximum of 50 cents an hour, an amount that would have been slightly less than the Elevated maximum, and probably satisfactory.

Officers of the Bay State unions were in New York, together with James H. Vahey, counsel for the union men on the Bay State. None of them could be reached, but Bay State employees seen on the cars of the company and elsewhere expressed keen displeasure and predicted that there "would be something doing."

The increase granted is retroactive to June 1. The award was made at the final session of the board in New York at which time similar awards to employees of nine other traction companies centering in Pittsburg and Cleveland were made.

Under the award approximately $400 uniformed employees of the Bay State and 1600 other employees will benefit. Under a previous award of the war labor board the men were receiving 41 cents an hour the first three months, 43 cents an hour the next nine months, and 45 cents an hour after that time.

Lowell's Share $110,000
BOSTON, Aug. 13.—Discussing the 12 per cent increase in wages awarded by the national war labor board to the carmen of the Eastern Massachusetts railways, Chairman Homer Loring of the board of public trustees of the property, said today that the raise would amount to almost $1,000,000 the first year. He pointed out that the statistics published show an increase of 71 per cent in the cost of living since 1914, and that in the same period the wages of conductors and motormen of the system have increased 50-1-2 per cent.

"Under the new home rule plan of operation," he continued, "the entire increase will have to be borne by the car riders in the 12 districts. Fall

River's share will be approximately $80,000, Lowell's $110,000, Lynn's $100,000, Brockton's $100,000 and other cities proportionately.

"The trustees fear that this large increase in wages will prevent fares from being reduced in the near future, ment of 200 more miles of poor paying track."

JOHN M. FARRELL - - - - Auctioneer
OFFICE, 162 MARKET STREET, LOWELL, MASS.

Real Estate and Personal Property

AUCTION SALE

THURSDAY, AUG. 14, 1919, AT 1.30 P. M.

At H. A. Vickery's Market Garden Farm, on the River Meadow road, East Chelmsford, Mass., about one mile from Chelmsford Centre and about three miles from Lowell.

I shall sell at public auction an 8-room-house, barn, 4 green houses, plant house and boiler house, also 14 acres of land, more or less. The house has been built but a short time. The first floor has parlor, living room, sun parlor, dining room, kitchen and large pantry, front and back hall and front and back stairs. The second floor has four high-posted, bright, cheerful, sleeping rooms and bath room, open plumbing. There is a large sleeping room on the top floor and large storage room. There are good closets in all the rooms. Down stairs has all hardwood floors. The entire house is furnished in cypress, and has good water supplied by a compression tank, also cypress tank which windmill supplies, all good well water. The house has cemented cellar, steam heat, wash trays, hot and cold water.

The barn is a large, frame structure with stalls for 4 horses, tieups for 3 cows and storage for 20 tons of hay, large carriage house and wagon shed attached, with large vegetable cellar, separate from the main cellar. Four greenhouses, one 166 feet long and three 160 feet long, also plant house about 50 feet long, and boiler house with tool house attached, 3 new, horizontal, 20-h. p. high-pressure boilers made by Scamell & Wholey that furnish heat for the greenhouses, two of these have been used, the other was never called upon but reserved for emergency. The green houses are all modern. The 166 foot house has been up but a short time and with little repair this plant is ready to be put to work. There is plenty of good water available, as Hales brook is within 30 feet of the greenhouses.

There are 14 acres of land, more or less, level, early market garden soil, 40 nice young, bearing apple trees, asparagus bed of about one-half acre, and small fruits, also ten hives of honey bees. The live stock and tools consist of 2 cows, farm wagons, market wagons, Democrat wagons, Concord wagon, puns, sleighs, mowing machine, plow, harrows, horse rake and all kinds of small tools, 3 large power compression pumps, 200 boxes of hothouse glass and an endless number of small tools, plumbing tools, painter's rigging and many other useful articles that space will not allow mentioning.

Mr. Vickery has built this place and has conducted the business successfully, but his health does not allow him to care for the business any longer and he will sell everything, real estate and personal property, at public auction. Come and look the property over before the sale. You will find someone there to show you over the plant, or call on the auctioneer. Terms: $500 deposit on real estate at time and place of sale. All personal property Cash. Other terms at sale.

See order, H. A. VICKERY.

Keeping the House Clean is One Job Just Cut Out for Electric Service

Every user of the Royal Electric Cleaner will vouch for this statement.

The Royal is so easy to operate, and does its work so thoroughly, removing all the dust, dirt and lint from rugs, draperies, upholstery, etc., that your time will look brighter, fresher and cleaner than ever before.

The powerful suction of the Cleaner draws the dirt into the airtight bag from which it may be quickly removed without scattering a particle of dust about.

If you want to banish the broom and dust-pan, with their work and dirt, simply telephone 821 for particulars or stop in.
